The John Rogers Award is presented annually by the Institute for Energy Law of the Center for American and International Law to a person associated with the energy industry in recognition of extraordinary professional and civic achievement. The John Rogers Award was established in 1969 in honor of John Rogers of Tulsa, Oklahoma, and in recognition of Mr. Rogers' exemplary life, his great interest in legal education, and his valuable services to the Center.

The Institute for Energy Law gratefully acknowledges

BAKER BOTTS L.L.P.
BEIRNE, MAYNARD & PARSONS, L.L.P.
KILBURN LAW FIRM, PLLC

for their generous financial support in underwriting this event.

All conference registrants are invited to attend the festivities as guests of the Institute.

JOIN THE INSTITUTE FOR ENERGY LAW

Founded in 1959 as the International Oil & Gas Educational Center, the Institute for Energy Law (IEL) provides advanced, continuing legal education for lawyers and other professionals concerned with the energy industry. The Institute through its programs, scholarly publications and membership activities offers an important forum on contemporary issues affecting the industry. The Institute's record of educational achievements has been aided by the support of many of the world's leading companies, lawyers, and energy professionals.

MISSION

The energy industry is evolving, and so is the Institute for Energy Law. Historically focused on the oil and gas industry, the Institute is expanding its scope to serve not only oil and gas lawyers but lawyers and professionals in all other areas of domestic and international energy law as well. Please join us and help guide this evolution.

WHY BECOME A MEMBER?

Members are entitled to serve or to appoint one or more persons to serve on the Institute's Advisory Board, depending on the membership level. Advisory Board members are entitled to tuition-free attendance at the Annual Oil and Gas Law Conference or the Annual Power and Alternative Energy Law Conference, and discounted attendance at all other Institute programs. Advisory Board members also receive the Institute's quarterly e-newsletter, The Energy Law Advisor, discounts on all other Institute publications, access to the Institute's members-only website, and the opportunity to participate in the Institute's practice committees and online forums.

THE ADVISORY BOARD

The work of the IEL is done primarily through its Advisory Board, and its committees. The current practice committees of the IEL are: Oil and Gas, Power & Alternative Energy, International, and Young Energy Professionals.

The Advisory Board and its committees meet for business and social activities each February in connection with the annual Oil and Gas Law Conference, and at other times during the year. Other special events include the John Rogers Award Dinner and the Deans of Oil and Gas Lecture Luncheon, presented during the Annual Oil and Gas Law Conference, and the Special Achievement in Energy Litigation Award Luncheon during the Annual Energy Litigation Conference.

PROGRAMS AND PUBLICATIONS

Each year the Institute for Energy Law offers its two-day Annual Oil and Gas Law Conference, which was first presented in 1949 and is now the oldest continuing legal education program in the country. Other annual programs include the Power and Alternative Energy Law Conference; Energy Litigation Conference; International Energy Law, Contracts and Negotiations – Upstream; International Energy Law, Contracts and Negotiations – Midstream; and a fundamentals Short Course on Oil and Gas Law. Every other year the Institute sponsors an Institute for Natural Resources Law Teachers. Webinars on hot topics in the industry are presented periodically. For a complete calendar of IEL programs, please visit our website at www.cailaw.org/iel.

The Institute for Energy Law publishes a quarterly e-newsletter, The Energy Law Advisor, a members-only website, a members-only online forum on LinkedIn, an Energy Law Online Articles Index of papers published at past conferences and, with LexisNexis Matthew Bender, the Oil and Gas Reporter (since 1952) and the Proceedings of the Institute on Oil and Gas Law (since 1949).
