

2nd Americas Roundtable

A Meeting for Young Lawyers on International Arbitration

Hotel Camino Real ❖ Mexico City

April 2, 2009

FACULTY

XAVIER ANDRADE

Andrade Veloz & Asociados, Quito

Xavier Andrade is a Partner at Andrade Veloz & Asociados in Quito. He was Vice President for legal and regulatory affairs of a local leading telecommunication company; International lawyer of the Cross-border and International Transactions Group of Holland & Knight LLP, in their DC office; and, intern at the ICC International Court of Arbitration. He is a lecturer on International Commercial Arbitration at the Pontifical Catholic University of Ecuador since 2003; Deputy Director General of the International Arbitration and Mediation Centre (CIAM) in Quito; and, National Representative for Ecuador before the IBA Young Lawyers Committee. Xavier obtained the LL.B and J.D degrees from the Pontifical Catholic University of Ecuador and a LL.M from McGill University.

SALVADOR FONSECA

Chadbourne & Parke, Mexico City

Salvador Fonseca is an attorney at Chadbourne & Parke in Mexico City. Salvador Fonseca's practice focuses on litigation and dispute resolution. He represents corporate and individual clients in complex domestic and international litigation and arbitration. Mr. Fonseca has participated in arbitrations under the ICC, AAA/ICDR and CANACO Rules and is familiar with investment arbitrations under the ICSID Rules. He is also an expert in Dispute Boards and other methods of solving disputes. As part of its litigation practice, Mr. Fonseca regularly counsels clients on bankruptcy and financial restructuring matters and has also advised clients in local and international corporate compliance issues. He also lectures and speaks frequently on commercial arbitration and civil procedure law.

VALERIA GALÍNDEZ

Wald e Associados Advogados, São Paulo

Valeria Galíndez is a senior associate of the arbitration team of Wald e Associados Advogados (São Paulo, Brazil). She is member of the Coordinating Committee of the Latin American Chapter of the ICCYAF, secretary of the Arbitration Commission of the Brazilian ICC Committee and of the Arbitration Commission of the Brazilian Bar Association (Chapter of the State of São Paulo). She is also editor assistant of the Revista de Arbitragem e Mediação and author of several articles on arbitration. Valeria has been acting as counsel in both domestic and international arbitrations, and as secretary of the arbitral tribunal in many cases. She speaks Spanish, Portuguese, French and English.

FACULTY

SOFÍA GÓMEZ RUANO

Azar, Ortega & Gómez Ruano, S.C., Mexico City

Sofía Gómez Ruano represented the Universidad Panamericana at the Willhem Annual International Arbitration Moot in Vienna, Austria, and has acted as speaker in several seminars related to dispute resolution, specifically on dispute resolution, mediation and arbitration panels. Ms. Gómez Ruano has wide experience in the conduction of arbitration proceedings due to her former role as Secretary General of the Arbitration Center of Mexico (CAM) and her current role as Deputy Counsel to such center. She has also been party counsel in several arbitrations under the CANACO and ICC Arbitration Rules. She is a member of the Board of Directors of the National Association of Inhouse Lawyers (ANADE), representative for Latin America of the Young International Arbitration Group of the London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA) and appointed member by the Mexican government to the Advisory Committee on Private Commercial Disputes of the North American Free Trade Agreement (2022 Committee). She is a founding partner of Azar, Ortega y Gómez Ruano.

KATHERINE GONZÁLEZ ARROCHA

ICC Dispute Resolution Services, ICC International Court of Arbitration, Panama City

Katherine González Arrocha is a Panamanian citizen. A qualified lawyer, she studied first in Panama and then obtained a Master's degree from the French university Paris II (Panthéon-Assas), where she specialized in arbitration and alternative dispute resolution. She joined the Secretariat of the ICC International Court of Arbitration in 1996, where she was entrusted with the responsibility to manage arbitration cases coming mainly from Latin America and the Iberian regions. In 2004, she was appointed Senior Counsel for ICC Dispute Resolution Services and Secretary for the ICC Commission on Arbitration. Since February 2007, she is acting as Director for Latin America of ICC Dispute Resolution Services, based in Panama City.

PEDRO JEDLICKA

Imery Urdaneta, Caracas

Pedro A. Jedlicka is a partner of Imery Urdaneta in Caracas, Venezuela, coordinating the Dispute Resolution department of the firm. He is a specialist in negotiation, mediation and arbitration, extending his experience to civil and commercial litigation. He is a lawyer graduated from Andres Bello Catholic University in Caracas, Venezuela, where he also obtained Master's degrees in Procedural Law (Litigation) and Commercial Law. He also obtained a Master's Degree in International Commercial Law from the University of California, Davis and, most recently, he finished the Program on Negotiation at Harvard Law School. He is a Professor of Law at Monteavila University and Andres Bello Catholic University in Venezuela, teaching Evidence and Alternative Methods of Dispute Resolution at both institutions. Pedro is a member of the list of Arbitrators and Conciliators of the Business Center for Conciliation and Arbitration (CEDCA) in Caracas, Venezuela, as well as a member of the International Dispute Resolution and International Litigation Committees of the American Bar Association (ABA).

ADRIÁN MAGALLANES

Von Wobeser y Sierra, S.C., Mexico City

Adrián Magallanes joined the litigation/arbitration department of Von Wobeser y Sierra, S.C. in 2002, where he has acted as counsel for national and multinational companies in several ad hoc and institutional arbitration proceedings concerning large commercial, construction and investment disputes. He is experienced in enforcing arbitral awards and foreign judgments in Mexican Courts, and has litigated administrative and constitutional law cases. Adrian graduated summa cum laude from the "Escuela Libre Derecho" (Mexico) and has postgraduate studies in arbitration and governmental contracts from McGill Law Faculty and Universidad Iberoamericana, respectively. He is currently pursuing an LL.M. at New York University School of Law as an Arthur T. Vanderbilt Scholar (Hauser Global Program).

NOIANA MARIGO

Freshfields, New York City, NY

Noiana Marigo is a senior associate in the international arbitration group of Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, having practiced in Buenos Aires, Paris and New York. Noiana has acted as counsel in a variety of commercial and investment treaty arbitrations, specialising in Latin America. She has represented Latin American corporations and foreign investors in the region in ad hoc and institutional arbitrations involving sectors as diverse as oil (upstream and downstream), electricity generation and transportation, gas transportation and distribution, foreign debt and water and sewage sectors. Noiana has been a visiting lecturer at the Universidad Autónoma de Madrid, the University of Paris X (Nanterre), the University of Buenos Aires and the University of Chile. She has also co-ordinated and lectured for the postgraduate course Conflicto, Negociación y Arbitraje Internacional at the Universidad de Buenos Aires. Before joining Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, she worked for three years in the Buenos Aires office of the Argentine law firm Marval, O'Farrell & Mairal. Noiana speaks Spanish, English, French and German.

FACULTY

ALBERTO MUERZA

Von Wobeser y Sierra, S.C., Mexico City

Alberto Muerza has significant experience in all kinds of civil, commercial and administrative litigation, domestic and international litigation. Torts, contractual liability, tax litigation, antitrust analysis and litigation include some of his favorite practices. Mr. Muerza's practice also includes all phases of recognition and execution of arbitral awards before State and Federal. He received a B.A. in Law (1999) with honors and a B.A. in Economics with honors (2002) from the Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México (ITAM) where he worked as teaching and research assistant. Mr. Muerza holds and L.L.M. in International Business Law (2005) with merit, from the London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE). He holds a diploma from the ICC chapter in Mexico in International Business Arbitration. Following law school, he clerked for the Honorable Juan N. Silva Meza, Justice of Mexico's Supreme Court. After his clerkship he continued a judicial career serving as court officer and secretary in the 4th District Court in Civil Law and the 7th Circuit Court in Civil Law. He is a member of the Mexican Bar Association. He is admitted to practice before the all the federal courts, the U.S. Supreme Court, and many state courts and courts of appeals. He has been a teaching assistant of Civil Rights Enforcement Proceedings Law at ITAM and has taught the Courses of Constitutional Law and Constitutional Procedure Law in the Federal Judicial School Institute. Mr. Muerza is fluent in English and has basic knowledge of the French and German languages. He is always keen on discussing legal problems in public and private forums.

YANETT QUIROZ VALDOVINOS

Center for Mediation and Arbitration, CANACO, Mexico City

Yanett Quiroz Valdovinos is an attorney. Since 2006 she is the Secretary General for the Mediation and Arbitration Centre of the Mexico City National Chamber of Commerce (CANACO), in charge of the administration of mediation and arbitration proceedings, both domestic and international, under the rules of CANACO, the Commercial Arbitration and Mediation Centre for the Americas (CAMCA) and the Inter-American Commercial Arbitration Commission (IACAC). She is a member of the Mexican Bar and of the Young International Arbitration Group of the London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA), and has participated in several conferences about mediation and arbitration.

ANÍBAL SABATER

Fulbright & Jaworski LLP, Houston, TX

Aníbal Sabater is a licensed lawyer in the United States (California), England and Wales (solicitor), and Spain, where he obtained his Ph.D. and practiced law in the field of international dispute resolution between 1997 and 2003. In 2003, he joined Fulbright & Jaworski LLP (Houston), where he specializes in international arbitration. Mr. Sabater has served as counsel in arbitration cases conducted in English and/or Spanish under various rules, including the AAA/ICDR, ICC, ICSID, LCIA, and UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules. Those cases related to matters as varied as construction, energy, intellectual property, joint ventures, and foreign investment. Aníbal Sabater's transnational legal experience extends to advising parties on predispute matters (including the choice of dispute resolution methodologies) and conflict of foreign laws. He has also been involved in cross-border litigation, mediation, and conciliation matters, as well as in cases before the European Court of Human Rights and the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights. The venues of the international arbitration and litigation cases in which Aníbal Sabater has been involved include Egypt, England, France, Germany, Spain, Switzerland, United States, and Uruguay. The laws applicable to resolve the international disputes in which Aníbal has been involved include international law and the laws of Argentina, Bolivia, Chile, Ecuador, England, Egypt, France, Germany, Luxembourg, Mexico, Monaco, Peru, Russia, Spain, Switzerland, United States, and Venezuela. From time to time, Aníbal Sabater is appointed to serve as an arbitrator in international cases. He is a member of the ICDR international list of arbitrators and, in December 2006, was appointed to the panel of arbitrators of the Central America - Chile Free Trade Agreement. A frequent speaker on his field, since 2007 Aníbal teaches as an adjunct professor a course on the International Law of Foreign Investment at the University of Houston Law Center. Between 1997 and 2002, Anibal taught Dispute Resolution at the Faculty of Law of the Universidad Complutense de Madrid, where he became an Associate Professor.

ERIKA M. SERRAN

White & Case, Miami, FL

Erika Serran is a senior associate in the International Arbitration and Litigation Practice Groups of White & Case, LLP. Ms. Serran focuses on international dispute resolution, including international investment and commercial arbitration and international-related litigation in US courts. She has represented sovereign and corporate clients, as well as individuals, before the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) at the World Bank, the International Court of Arbitration at the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), the International Centre for Dispute Resolution (ICDR), the American Arbitration Association (AAA), the Inter-American Commission and Court of Human Rights, and US state, federal, bankruptcy and immigration courts. Prior to joining White & Case, Ms. Serran clerked for the Honorable Rosemary Barkett of the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals and for the Honorable Adalberto Jordan of the Southern District of Florida. Ms. Serran is a summa cum laude graduate of the University of Notre Dame and received her Juris Doctor from Yale University.