The Iran-U.S. Claims Tribunal at 25:

The Cases Everyone Needs to Know for Investor-State & International Arbitration

The Iran-United States Claims Tribunal,

which has been called the most significant arbitral body in history, celebrates its 25th anniversary in 2006. As of mid-2005, the Tribunal had issued over 800 awards and decisions—a total of 600 awards (including partial awards and awards on agreed terms), 83 interlocutory and interim awards, and 133 decisions—in resolving almost 3000 cases. The Tribunal's awards have been described as the most important body of international arbitration jurisprudence. The significance of these decisions as persuasive authority is second to none.

The book approaches the Tribunal's work from a forward-looking perspective with emphasis on the continuing usefulness of awards and decisions issued by the Tribunal in international arbitration practice.

In addition to original contributions from an array of eminent authors (all of whom have extensive experience at the Tribunal and/or in investor-state and international arbitration), this book includes excerpts of key awards discussed in the contributions, as well as appendices with foundational documents for the Tribunal.

About the Editors

Christopher S. Gibson is an Associate Professor of Law, Suffolk University Law School, Of Counsel to Steptoe & Johnson, and former Legal Assistant, Iran-U.S. Claims Tribunal. Co-editor and author Christopher R. Drahozal is the John M. Rounds Professor of Law at the University of Kansas School of Law and a former Legal Assistant, Iran-U.S. Claims Tribunal.

Features and Benefits are:

- Provides an essential resource for lawyers and parties involved in investor-State and international commercial disputes; the Tribunal's awards are "a gold mine of information for perceptive lawyers"—Howard Holtzmann
- Thoroughly examines the ongoing relevance of the Tribunal's decisions and awards for the burgeoning field of investor-State arbitration with a forward-looking perspective
- Eminent practitioners have selected from among the hundreds of awards and decisions of the Tribunal those with the most significance — giving you the substance you need for your current arbitrations
- Each chapter is an original contribution by an internationally respected author—all of whom have either extensive experience in investor-State arbitration or worked on matters before the Tribunal — or both
- Includes edited versions of the leading Tribunal Awards and decisions discussed in the text for your quick, easy reference
