

Biography

---

Gregory F. Holliday

Dallas, Texas

Greg Holliday began his career in policing in September of 1970 with the Dallas Police Department and worked his way through the ranks to the position of Assistant Chief of Police. As Assistant Chief, he commanded the Emergency Operations Center during 9/11 and received many awards including the Departmental Certificate of Merit Award for his work on streamlining the criminal Case Filing System; the Departmental Certificate of Civic Achievement and recognition from the Rotary International District 5810 for Ethics in Business/Government.

Following his retirement from the Dallas Police Department in January of 2002, Greg was the Regional Director of Security for Crescent Real Estate Equities from August of 2003 to September of 2007. In this position, he was responsible for the overall security operations for over 14 million square foot of Class A high rise office space located in seven states. He received Crescent's Star Award for his work during the Free Trade Area of America (FTAA) Summit and was nominated twice for the CEO Award of Excellence.

Greg has a Master of Science in Human Relations and Management from Abilene Christian University at Dallas. In addition, he has a Bachelor of Business Administration, Bachelor of Science and Criminal Justice Degree.

He is a graduate of the Police Executive Research Forum's Senior Management Institute, the United States Secret Service Dignitary Protection School, the Southwestern Law Enforcement Institute's (now known as the Institute for Law Enforcement Administration) School of Police Supervision and Command and Management College.