

Contemporary Issues and Ethics Conference

POLICING IN OUR CENTURY: THE EMERGING ISSUES

Course Overview

This year's conference will focus on a variety of topics that bring together police leaders and academicians for the serious dialogue that will enable the resolution of many of the issues and the challenges facing American policing today. Always thought provoking, the mix of attendees of this conference will bring valuable thought and attention to the real issues of the day.

This year we will be offering a special lunch, COPS Cooking for COPS. Instead of the usual catered lunch for Alumni members only, we are excited to provide lunch for all conference attendees which will be cooked by cops for cops.
