COURSE OVERVIEW

This four-week school is designed for first-line supervisors and middle-level management. It should be of interest to law enforcement agencies concerned with the professionalism of their management team. The curriculum focuses on the transition from “street policing” to the challenges of the fast paced and fluid world of law enforcement leadership, including the social and personal adjustments. This course will meet the basic requirements established by TCOLE for the preparation of new supervisors for their supervisory role. Successful graduates of this course will receive credit for TCOLE New Supervisor’s Course 3737.

TOPICS (For a complete list of topics/agenda, please visit theilea.org)

- Role Identification and Transition
- Procedural Justice and Police Legitimacy
- Diversity for Law Enforcement
- Stress Management / Time Management
- Honoring Boundaries
- FLSA
- Reset the Clock: Replace Liability with Credibility

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This course is aimed at newly promoted sworn and civilian supervisors; however veteran supervisors in need of basic supervisory training will also find this course beneficial.
