COURSE OVERVIEW

12/16 - 12/20

Teaching Diversity

Strategies for Instructors

Successful completion of this program will prepare officers to conduct diversity training within their organizations and academies.

Law enforcement is charged with relating to all segments of their communities in a fair and impartial manner. Therefore, familiarization with communication styles, customs, language and behavior patterns of various cultures, ethnic groups and non-traditional populations will effectively enhance the quality of police services and departmental image. Shared knowledge of various populations will enhance officer safety, and is likely to increase understanding and empathy in the process of improving police-citizen contacts. This course will also offer several strategies for improving workforce diversity and community relations.

Topics

- Linking officer safety with diversity education
- Strategies for reducing cross-cultural conflict
- Community building and principles of procedural justice/legitimacy
- Cross-religious relationship building
- Generations in the workplace
- Affirming our lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender communities

Who Should Attend?

Police instructors; police managers and supervisors; community relations specialists; and community advocates

*This course is best suited for individuals with prior training experience.
