COURSE OVERVIEW

6/6 - 6/10

Hosted by:

Teaching Diversity:

Instructor Skills for Promoting Inclusion, Anti-Bias and Justice Education

Successful completion of this program will prepare officers to conduct diversity training within their organizations and academies.

Law enforcement is charged with relating to all segments of their communities in a fair and impartial manner. Familiarization with communication styles, customs, language and behavior patterns of various cultures, ethnic groups and non-traditional populations will strengthen the quality of police services and departmental image. This course will offer several strategies for improving community relations and workforce diversity.

Topics

- Linking multicultural education to enhancing officer safety
- Examining conscious and unconscious bias and its effect on personal and professional behavior
- Understanding the historical relationship between law enforcement and communities of color
- Leveraging cross-cultural communication styles to minimize conflict
- Embracing procedural justice to ensure citizens are treated with dignity, respect, and given voice
- Exploring tools of tolerance and understanding through experiential learning

Who Should Attend?

Police instructors; police managers and supervisors; community relations specialists; and community advocates

*This course is best suited for individuals with prior training experience.
