The finance and banking industry is a trending topic these days given the recent publication of the ICC Commission Report on Financial Institutions and International Arbitration. This event aims to provide young arbitration stakeholders with a legal and market-oriented perspective on the challenges posed by the development of arbitration in the finance and banking industry, focusing in particular in the role of the region.

YAI TALKS # is a series of local events presenting talks, workshops or interviews that cover a wide range of subjects relating to arbitration, designed for learning, provoking conversation and sharing knowledge and experiences among young practitioners.

Thanks to the generosity of our sponsors, this event is tuition-free and includes brunch. Please register in advance at cailaw.org/ita to help us capture an accurate headcount.
