

The Practice of International Commercial Arbitration:
Beginning, Middle and End

*Part I: Commencing an International Commercial Arbitration:
Fundamentals and Strategy and featuring Corporate Perspectives on the Arbitral Process*

FACULTY BIOGRAPHIES

ARIF HYDER ALI is Co-Chair of Weil Gotshal's International Arbitration Group. His international dispute resolution experience and client representation spans continents and cultures, national political establishments and inter-governmental organizations, private companies and state-owned enterprises, sovereign governments and private individuals. Prior to entering private practice, Mr. Ali was Senior Counsel at the World Intellectual Property Organization's (WIPO) Arbitration and Mediation Center, a Section Chief at the UN Compensation Commission, and practiced international arbitration and public international law in Paris, France. He is also an Adjunct Professor of Law at Georgetown University, where he teaches international commercial and investment arbitration, and an Honorary Lecturer at the University of Dundee's Centre for Energy, Mining and Petroleum Law and Policy. He earned his B.A., summa cum laude, from Columbia University and his J.D. from the New York University School of Law. He is fluent in French, Spanish, Hindi and Urdu, and also speaks Portuguese and Bengali.

NOELLE BERRYMAN is counsel in the international arbitration team of the London office of Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP. Her broad experience in international disputes has included representing companies in the oil and gas, energy, and telecommunications industries in international commercial arbitrations under LCIA, ICDR, ICC, Vienna, and UNCITRAL Rules, as well as advising corporations that were the subject of U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, U.S. Congressional, and ad hoc investigations. She is a graduate of Rice University and The University of Texas School of Law.

DAVID BRYNMOR THOMAS is a Barrister, specialising in the conduct of complex commercial disputes, in particular International Commercial Arbitrations and English High Court proceedings. He has conducted disputes across a wide range of industry sectors, including major infrastructure projects and energy related disputes. Having originally qualified in Medicine before studying Law, David is particularly comfortable dealing with cases and conducting cross-examination with a highly scientific or technical basis. As well as his principal work as Counsel, David sits as an arbitrator in institutional and ad hoc arbitrations, including arbitrations under the Rules of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), the London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA) and the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules. David is a member, nominated by the United Kingdom Committee, of the International Chamber of Commerce's Commission on Arbitration. He is a Trustee of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, which he represented at the UNCITRAL Working Group on International Commercial Arbitration, participating in the Working Group's deliberations on amendments to the UNCITRAL Model Law and the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules.

PEDRO ALBERTO COSTA BRAGA DE OLIVEIRA is General Counsel - Brazil at Enel Green Power, a company dedicated to generation of renewable energy from wind, solar, geothermal, hydroelectric water flow and biomass energy sources. Pedro Costa Braga leads a small team of 6 lawyers, which provides legal advice on a wide range of issues related to the company's renewable energy business in Brazil, including international and domestic dispute resolution. Prior to joining Enel, Pedro Costa Braga practiced with law firms based in São Paulo and Madrid. He earned his J.D. from the Universidade Cândido Mendes and his LL.M. from the University of Houston Law Center. Besides Portuguese, Pedro Costa Braga speaks English and Spanish, and has a working knowledge of Italian.

ALAN R. CRAIN is Senior Vice President & General Counsel of Baker Hughes Incorporated, a global technology and services company with operations in over 90 countries. He has been General Counsel of two other large multinationals. He has more than 25 year's experience as an arbitrator in a broad range of cases involving international commercial matters. He has served on more than 50 tribunals for the A.A.A., I.C.D.R., NYSE, NASD, I.C.C. and for arbitration under the UNCITRAL Rules, usually as chairman. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the American Arbitration Association (AAA). He was an adjunct Professor of International Law at the University of Houston for 10 years. He is an expert in corporate governance and has been a director of a multibillion dollar NYSE corporation, and has advised other boards of directors for over 20 years. He has been Chairman of the Houston World Affairs Council and the Houston Committee on Foreign Relations as well as serving on the Executive Board of the Philadelphia Committee on Foreign Relations. He has received many honors and awards, including the Best General Counsel Award from the Houston Business Journal and the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Texas General Counsel Forum. In addition to his J.D., Mr. Crain has earned an M.B.A. and M.S. and B.S. degrees in Engineering.

JOHN FELLAS is partner in the New York office of Hughes Hubbard & Reed LLP, practicing in the fields of international litigation and arbitration. He has practiced in both the U.S. and England, and as well as being a member of the New York Bar, he is also a Solicitor of the Supreme Court of England and Wales. He has served as counsel, and as chair, sole arbitrator and co-arbitrator, in arbitrations under the AAA, ICC and ad hoc rules. He also serves on the Mediation Panel of the District Court for the Southern District of New York. He has been recognized by, among others, Who's Who Legal – The International Who's Who Of Business Lawyers (International Arbitration); Chambers USA - Guide to America's Leading Business Lawyers (International Arbitration); Chambers Global (International Arbitration); The Best Lawyers In America (International Arbitration). He is co-editor of International Commercial Arbitration in New York (Oxford University Press 2010). He received a B.A. (Hons.) from the University of Durham, England, and both an LL.M. and an S.J.D. from the Harvard Law School.

JOHN L. GARDINER is co-head of Skadden's International Litigation and Arbitration Group. He concentrates his practice in the resolution of complex, high exposure, multijurisdictional disputes before federal and state courts, as well as leading arbitral institutions. He is among The Best Lawyers in America 2012 and he is listed in the International Who's Who of Commercial Arbitrators 2011. He also is one of the world's best international arbitration lawyers and was named both by Chambers Global: The World's Leading Lawyers for Business 2006-2007 and Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business 2005-2011. Mr. Gardiner's extensive litigation and arbitration experience covers a wide range of breach disputes in the aluminum, energy, insurance/reinsurance, telecommunications, construction and finance sectors. He also has acted as arbitrator in complex international corporate disputes and as mediator in intricate corporate and partnership separation situations. He has participated as counsel in many successful mediations and expert proceedings both internationally and domestically.

CHRISTOPHER GIBSON is a Vice-Chair of ITA's Academic Council and an Associate Dean and Professor of Law at Suffolk University Law School. He is an expert in international law, international arbitration and intellectual property issues. Before joining Suffolk Law School, Professor Gibson was a founding partner of Steptoe & Johnson's London office, where he specialized in the areas of international arbitration, as well as intellectual property and technology disputes and transactions. Prior to joining Steptoe, Professor Gibson was Head of the Electronic Commerce Section at the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) and a Senior Legal Counsel in its Arbitration and Mediation Center, a Section Chief at the UN Compensation Commission, and a Legal Assistant at the Iran-United States Claims Tribunal. Professor Gibson teaches and writes in the areas of international dispute resolution, intellectual property, international trade and investment, and Internet law and technology.

JUDITH GILL, Q.C. specializes in international arbitration, both institutional and ad hoc, under ICSID, LCIA, ICC and AAA Rules. She also sits as an arbitrator. Judith is qualified as a Solicitor Advocate and frequently appears as an advocate in arbitration proceedings. Judith is only the second woman solicitor-advocate to be appointed QC and the first with an international arbitration practice. Judith's practice covers a broad range of subjects including insurance, joint ventures, distributorships, healthcare, banking and investment treaty arbitration. She is a

Director of the LCIA, a former member of the LCIA Court and a member of the ICC UK Arbitration Group. Judith has also been appointed to the Board of Directors of both the Singapore International Arbitration Centre and the American Arbitration Association and is the Immediate Past Co-Chair of the Arbitration Committee of the IBA. Judith is joint author of the leading textbook "Russell on Arbitration" and has published widely on international arbitration.

TERESA GIOVANNINI has acted as counsel and arbitrator in more than 140 international arbitrations, either ad hoc or administered by various institutions (AAA/ICDR, CCIG, ICC, ICHEIC, ICSID, LCIA, SCC, Chamber of Commerce of Milan, Chamber of Commerce of Venice and Chamber of Commerce of Ticino). Teresa Giovannini is a member of several panels of arbitrators, including the ICC Swiss National Committee, the ICDR, the Beijing Arbitration

Commission (BAC), the CIETAC, the CRCICA, the DIAC, the ICHEIC and the LCIA. Since 2012 she has been included on the ICOM-WIPO List of Mediators with specific expertise in art and cultural heritage. Teresa Giovannini was a member and vice-president of the LCIA Court from 2006 until 2011. She is currently a member of the Council of the ICC Institute of World Business Law, of the International Law Association Committee on Arbitration (Swiss Member), of the IBA Sub-Committee on Conflicts of Interest, of the Board of Directors of the American Arbitration Association, of the Advisory Board of the Transnational Arbitration Association, of the LCIA Company and of the Club of Arbitrators of the Milan Chamber of National and International Arbitration. She is also a member of many other professional associations, including ASA (Swiss Arbitration Association), the Swiss Society of International Law, the Swiss Society of Jurists, the Comité français de l'arbitrage, the International Arbitration Institute, the International Arbitration Club, and the International Bar Association (Arbitration and Art, Cultural Institutions and Heritage Law Committees). Teresa Giovannini is ranked by Chambers Europe since 2009, by Chambers Global since 2000 (Switzerland - Dispute resolution - Arbitrators) and by the International Who's Who of Commercial Arbitration since 2007. She is a frequent lecturer in the field of international arbitration (e.g. IBA, ICC Institute, ICCA, BIICL, CIArb, etc.) and the author of many articles on the subject.

CARLA POWERS HERRON - Before joining Shell in 2000, Carla was a trial lawyer for twenty-two years and an equity partner in Shook, Hardy & Bacon, L.L.P. She specialized in complex commercial and product liability cases, representing such clients as Philip Morris, Inc. (tobacco litigation), Koch Industries (royalty and shareholder litigation), Bristol-Myers Squibb (pharmaceutical and medical device litigation) and the City of Houston Municipal Employees' Pension System (securities litigation). In addition to maintaining a full-time practice, Carla was adjunct professor of law at the University of Houston Law Center for fourteen years, teaching trial advocacy, mass tort litigation and pre-trial procedure. She was worldwide head of litigation for the Shell Group, responsible for overseeing the Group's most significant litigation around the world and maintaining systems for litigation/dispute resolution identification, logging, reporting and risk assessment, until 2011 when she took a sabbatical from the practice of law to write her second book. Her first book, Matches in the Gas Tank, was published in November 2009.

JAMES HOSKING is a partner in the New York international arbitration and litigation boutique Chaffetz Lindsey LLP. He was previously a partner in the New York office of a major international law firm. His practice focuses primarily on commercial and investment treaty arbitration, and he has been counsel in arbitrations under all the major institutional rules and ad hoc. His team currently handles over $8 billion of disputes involving more than a dozen countries. His caseload includes matters arising out of corporate acquisitions, energy, oil and gas, pharmaceuticals, licensing agreements, re/insurance, investment treaties and the financial crisis. He is the co-author of the first commentary on the ICDR International Rules, was co-editor of the TDM symposium on IP rights and investment treaties, and in 2007 received the AAA Distinguished Service Award. James previously practiced in New Zealand.

STEPHEN JAGUSCH is a Partner and Global Head of Arbitration at Allen & Overy LLP. He specialises in investment treaty arbitration. He has acted as adviser and advocate in dozens of international arbitrations conducted in many countries across the world and subject to a wide variety of governing substantive and procedural laws. In addition to acting as adviser and advocate, Stephen regularly sits as an arbitrator in international arbitrations, both institutional and ad hoc. He has lectured extensively on international arbitration around the world and is recognised as an expert in investment treaty arbitration in all leading directories on such matters, including Martindale-Hubbell, The International Who's Who of Business Lawyers (and of Commercial Arbitration), the Legal Media Group (Experts in Commercial Arbitration), Chambers & Partners and Chambers Global, and the Legal 500. The Global Arbitration Review identified him as a "leader of the 'young' international arbitration bar" and one of London's "superarbitrators" to watch.

JEAN E. KALICKI is a Partner at Arnold & Porter LLP, specializing in international arbitration as both arbitrator and counsel. As arbitrator she has served as chair, sole arbitrator and co-arbitrator in a wide variety of commercial and investment disputes, before ICSID, the ICC, the AAA and the ICDR. As counsel she has particular experience in investment treaty disputes and has represented both investors and States, in roughly equal numbers, in disputes arising under bilateral investment treaties, NAFTA and the Energy Charter Treaty. In commercial cases, Ms. Kalicki has represented clients (including the United Nations) in disputes involving five continents. Ms. Kalicki is a member of the AAA Board of Directors, the ICC Commission on Arbitration, and the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, and teaches as an adjunct professor at both Georgetown University Law Center and American University Washington College. Selected as one of the “Best Lawyers in America” for international arbitration and by Global Arbitration Review as one of the top 30 Women in Arbitration worldwide, Ms. Kalicki is the long-time co-chair of the DC Bar's International Dispute Resolution Committee and a member of the Executive Committee of the Institute for Transnational Arbitration.

MARK KANTOR - Until he retired from Milbank, Tweed, Hadley & McCloy LLP at the end of 1999, Mark Kantor was a partner in the Corporate and Project Finance Groups of the Firm. He currently serves as an arbitrator and mediator, and teaches courses in International Business Transactions and in International Arbitration as an Adjunct Professor at the Georgetown University Law Center. He is also a Senior Research Fellow at the Vale Columbia Program on Sustainable International Investment (a joint enterprise of Columbia Law School and the Earth Institute at Columbia University). In addition, he is Editor in Chief of Transnational Dispute Management, the global dispute resolution journal. He is listed in inter alia Who's Who Commercial Arbitration, Chambers USA (International Arbitration), and Best Lawyers in America (International Arbitration). Among other publications, he is the author of Valuation for Arbitration: Compensation Standards, Valuation Methods and Expert Evidence (Kluwer 2008).

ERIC C. LIEBELER is the Vice President and Associate General Counsel (Litigation) for Siemens Corporation. He manages all United States-related litigation for Siemens, and was previously the Chief Litigation Counsel for Honeywell's Automation and Control Solutions division. While in private practice before that, he was a partner at Kirkland & Ellis LLP. He is an occasional competitor at the World Series of Poker.

WENDY J. MILES is a partner at Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr in London and specializes in international arbitration. She has acted as advisor and advocate for international companies and states or state parties in arbitration proceedings conducted in a number of jurisdictions and under various rules including ICC, LCIA, HKIAC, PCA and UNCITRAL. Wendy regularly deals with both private and public international law issues. She recently has been involved in several energy-related arbitrations under both ICC and LCIA rules arising from disputes relating to off-shore oil rights and an ad hoc arbitration proceeding in a dispute arising out of a major construction project on the South Asian sub-continent. In 2009, Wendy was lead co-counsel for southern Sudan in the Abyei Arbitration boundary dispute in the oil-rich Sudan (with the entire proceedings subject to live media coverage via the internet). Wendy continues to represent clients in proceedings in the energy, telecommunications, media, insurance, construction, financial services and pharmaceutical sectors, as well as sitting as arbitrator.

BONARD MOLINA GARCÍA is principal at Windrose LLP. He has worked on a variety of international arbitrations, representing private companies as well as sovereign States investor-State and commercial arbitrations. He has also represented sovereign States in litigation before United States federal courts. Mr. Molina García is a graduate of Loyola University Maryland (B.A., 2001), Catholic University of America (M.A., 2003), and Georgetown University Law Center (J.D., 2006).

JAN PAULSSON is co-head of our international arbitration and public international law groups and has acted as counsel or arbitrator in many hundreds of international arbitrations, conducted notably under the rules of the ICC, UNCITRAL, ICSID, LCIA, AAA and the Stockholm Institute. He also acted as ad hoc arbitrator at the Olympic Games in Atlanta, Nagano and Sydney. In addition, he has acted before public international law tribunals, including the International Court of Justice. Jan is President of the International Council for Commercial Arbitration, President of the Administrative Tribunals of the OECD and the EBRD, Vice-President of the ICC International Court of Arbitration and a board member of the AAA. He is a former President of the London Court of International Arbitration and the World Bank Administrative Tribunal. Jan holds the Michael Klein Distinguished Scholar Chair and is head of a graduate programme in international arbitration at the School of Law of the University of Miami. He is also a Centennial Professor at the London School of Economics. He is the author of several textbooks and numerous articles on the subject of international arbitration, in particular the standard reference work International Chamber of Commerce Arbitration (3rd edition 2000) which he co-authored with Messrs. W.L. Craig and W.W. Park, and his monograph Denial of Justice in International Law which was published by Cambridge University Press in 2005. Jan holds degrees from Harvard College, Yale Law School (where he was an editor of the Yale Law Journal) and the University of Paris. He is a US-qualified attorney and an Avocat à la Cour in France. He speaks English, French, Spanish and Swedish.

PHILIPPE PINSOLLE is a partner at Shearman & Sterling LLP in Paris, and specializes in international arbitration. He has been involved, as counsel or arbitrator, in more than a hundred and eighty international arbitrations, both institutional (ICC, ICSID, LCIA, SCC, AFA, Swiss Rules, etc.) and ad hoc, concerning such activities as investment, oil and gas, energy, telecom or defense industry. He is a member of the Paris Bar and of the Bar of England & Wales (Gray's Inn). He is a lecturer on international arbitration at the Universities of Aix-Marseille III, Versailles-St Quentin and Paris 12. Philippe Pinsolle is the former President of the International Arbitration commission of the Union Internationale des Avocats (UIA). He is the author of numerous articles and case-notes on international arbitration. In 2012, he was awarded the ASA prize for advocacy in international commercial arbitration. He holds a J.D. degree from the University of Paris II, a M.Jur. from Oxford University, Hertford College, and an MBA degree from Essec.

LUCY REED, who currently serves as Chair of the ITA, co-heads the Freshfields global international arbitration group. She represents private and public clients and occasionally sits as arbitrator in international arbitrations under the major rules. Lucy is a member of the LCIA Court and the ICC Commission on Arbitration, and was recently designated by ICSID to the ICSID Panel of Arbitrators. She has served as an arbitrator on the Eritrea-Ethiopia Claims Commission, co-director of the Claims Resolution Tribunal for Dormant Accounts in Switzerland and, while with the State Department, the U.S. Agent to the Iran-U.S. Claims Tribunal. Lucy is co-author of the Freshfields Guide to Arbitration Clauses in International Contracts and the Guide to ICSID Arbitration (both published by Kluwer). She served as President of the American Society of International Law (2008-2010) and is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations.

KLAUS REICHERT, S.C. is a barrister in practice at Brick Court Chambers in London and at the Bar of Ireland. He has served as arbitrator and counsel in over one hundred international cases in many jurisdictions pursuant to rules including LCIA, ICC, ICDR, UNCITRAL, LCIA-DIFC and ICSID. He is a member of the LPD Council of the International Bar Association, the Executive Boards of the ITA and Arbitration Ireland and the ICC Irish National Committee. He was counsel for Dallah in the landmark case on the New York Convention before the English Courts. He was the chair of the Host Committee for ICCA 2008 in Dublin and in 2012 lectured on international arbitration at The Hague Academy of International Law, Seminar for Advanced Studies.

ANN RYAN ROBERTSON is Counsel with Locke Lord LLP. In 2008, in recognition of her many accomplishments, Ms. Robertson was one of thirty women named an Extraordinary Woman in Texas Law by The Texas Lawyer. Ms. Robertson is the Chair of the North American Branch of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, a Member of the NAFTA 2022 Committee, a Founding Member of ArbitralWomen, and a Member of the Advisory Board of the Institute for Transnational Arbitration. Realizing the importance of training young lawyers, Ms. Robertson also coaches the University of Houston Law Center's Willem C. Vis Moot International Commercial Arbitration Moot team and is a past lecturer for the Academy of American and International Law. Ms. Robertson is frequently invited to address professional and continuing education groups, and has authored a number of articles on international dispute resolution issues.

AUDLEY SHEPPARD is a partner in the London office of Clifford Chance LLP. He is global head of the firm's International Commercial Arbitration group. He has over twenty years' experience in the resolution of disputes arising out of major infrastructure and energy projects and international contracts, as counsel and arbitrator. He is a visiting professor at the Queen Mary School of International Arbitration, London, and Vice President of the LCIA Court. Audley has been a Member of the ICC Court of Arbitration, Co-Chair of the IBA arbitration committee and Rapporteur of the ILA arbitration committee.

EDUARDO SIQUEIROS received his law degree from Escuela Libre de Derecho in Mexico City and subsequently an LL.M. degree from Harvard Law School in Cambridge, Massachusetts. He is a partner at the law firm of Barrera, Siqueiros y Torres Landa, S.C. in Mexico City. He has been a professor at Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México (ITAM) and most recently at Universidad Iberoamericana, as well as a speaker in diverse fora in Mexico and abroad lecturing on matters of private commercial law, international business transactions and arbitration, areas in which he concentrates his practice. He has participated in multiple domestic and international commercial disputes, both as an arbitrator and party counsel, and as an arbitrator in investor-state disputes before ICSID, including NAFTA Chapter XI disputes.

ABBY COHEN SMUTNY is recognized as one of the world's leading experts in international arbitration. Ms. Smutny represents clients in arbitrations before all major arbitral institutions, including ICSID, ICC, LCIA, ICDR, VIAC, as well as in arbitration under UNCITRAL Rules. Ms. Smutny is a Vice-Chair of the Institute for Transnational Arbitration, a member of the Executive Council and formerly a member of Executive Committee of the American Society of International Law, Vice-Chair of the Arbitration Committee of the International Bar Association, and a former Chair of the International Law Section of the Washington, DC Bar Association. She writes and speaks frequently on topics involving international arbitration and investor-State dispute resolution.

TOM SPRANGE is a partner and Solicitor Advocate in the London office of King & Spalding. He is a member of the firm's International Arbitration Group. Mr. Sprange's practice focuses on significant disputes, many with a multi-jurisdictional emphasis. He has acted as Counsel in over 60 international arbitrations in the leading arbitration institutes including the ICC, AAA, SCC, LCIA and ICSID as well as a number of Ad-Hoc arbitrations. He has also acted as Counsel in proceedings before the High Court of England and Wales. This experience includes acting for the Claimants in arbitral proceedings that involved one of the largest ever commercial arbitration awards; securing a settlement of $1 billion in one of the largest ICSID claims pursued by an investor; acting for the Claimants in two of the leading authorities on worldwide freezing orders; and acting for the Defendant in one of the leading authorities relating to relief in support of arbitration pursuant to Section 44 of the Arbitration Act 1996. Mr. Sprange also has experience in conducting internal investigations, audits, and risk assessments for clients in the context of regulatory compliance, including of international and local anti-corruption and money laundering legislation. He has acted for large corporations, governments and individuals in this context. He is ranked in the UK Chambers and UK Legal 500 directories for arbitration and dispute resolution. He is described as a "a real star", "impressive", is said to combine a "Mensa-like intellect with a down-to-earth attitude" and to "not just go the extra yard in defending his client's position, but the extra mile". Mr. Sprange frequently speaks and publishes on international arbitration and regulatory issues.

CARMEN TIBURCIO is a legal consultant in the law firm of Luis Roberto Barroso & Associados. Her main area of practice is international law, international business transactions, international litigation and arbitration. She teaches private international law and international litigation and arbitration at the State University of Rio de Janeiro and at the graduate program of Gama Filho University. She holds a LL.M. and S.J.D. degree from the University of Virginia School of Law and has published books and articles on her area of expertise in Brazil and abroad. She is fluent in Portuguese, English, French, Italian and Spanish and has a good knowledge of German.

MARC VEIT is a partner in the litigation/arbitration team of Walder Wyss Ltd. in Zurich/Switzerland. Marc Veit is acting as counsel and arbitrator in international arbitrations under various rules, such as the ICC Rules, the Swiss Rules of International Arbitration, the LCIA Rules, the Arbitration Rules of the Stockholm Arbitration Institute and the UNCITRAL Rules. Marc Veit is former co-chair of ASA below 40 and teaches international arbitration at the University of Fribourg.

THOMAS W. WALSH, who currently serves as Chair of the ITA's Young Arbitrators' Initiative, is an associate in the New York office of Sullivan & Cromwell LLP. He focuses his practice on complex multijurisdictional litigation in U.S. federal and state courts, and international commercial and investor-state arbitration. Tom is a Deputy General Editor of Arbitration International and a member of the Arbitration Committee of the New York City Bar Association.

Following his graduation from the University of California, Berkeley School of Law, he served as a law clerk to Judge Juan R. Torruella of the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit. Tom was a Fulbright Scholar in Ecuador from 2000 to 2001. He is a frequent author on international arbitration topics.

EDUARDO ZULETA is a partner of Gomez-Pinzon Zuleta in Bogotá, Colombia. Mr. Zuleta specializes in international dispute resolution. Mr. Zuleta has extensive experience in international commercial arbitration - in matters related to construction, infrastructure, project finance, telecommunications, energy and international commercial contracts - and in investment disputes. He has acted as co-arbitrator, chair and counsel in international commercial arbitration under ICC, ICDR and UNCITRAL Rules and in investment arbitration under ICSID and UNCITRAL. Mr. Zuleta is professor in international arbitration and commercial law, vice-chair of the Arbitration Committee of IBA, member of the ICC Latin American Group, member of the advisory board of ITA and ACI Arb. He is the author of several articles and co-editor of publications on international arbitration.

The Practice of International Commercial Arbitration:
Beginning, Middle and End
Part II: The Merits Hearing:
Getting the Message to the Tribunal

FACULTY BIOGRAPHIES

JOSÉ MARÍA ALONSO is coordinating the international arbitration practice area and heading the International relations of Garrigues. "Leading lawyer in Spain" in litigation and arbitration, and corporate restructuring/insolvency, according to all of the most prestigious international legal directories. He is officially listed as an arbitrator for the TAS/CAS and CIETAC and has acted as arbitrator for the LCIA, ICC and ICDR on numerous occasions. He is Chairman of the Arbitration Court of the Madrid Bar Association, Chairman of the Spanish Arbitration Club (2005-2009) and currently Honorary Chairman, Second Member of the Governing Board of the Madrid Bar Association, Vice President of the International Law Association (ILA), Honorary Professor, Universidad de San Ignacio de Loyola, Lima (Peru), General Secretary and Board Secretary of Asociación para el Progreso de la Dirección (APD), Member of the Executive board of the Círculo de Empresarios, Delegate of the Spanish Committee of the International Chamber of Commerce, Member of the Commission on Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce.

DAVID ARIAS is a professor of procedural law, as well as partner and head of the dispute resolution practice at Perez-Llorca. David specialises in international arbitration and commercial litigation. He regularly acts as arbitrator and counsel in arbitrations under the ICC, LCIA, and Uncitral rules. David is an Officer of the Arbitration Committee of the International Bar Association (IBA) and he is one of the members of the Subcommittee that drafted the 2010 IBA Rules on the Taking of Evidence In International Arbitration. David is a member of the ICC Latin American Arbitration Group and a founder and the current Secretary General of the Club Español del Arbitraje. He is also the Secretary of the International Law Association (ILA) Spanish Branch. David regularly publishes in the field of arbitration and litigation and is the Director of Spain Arbitration Review.

NOELLE BERRYMAN is counsel in the international arbitration team of the London office of Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP. Her broad experience in international disputes has included representing companies in the oil and gas, energy, and telecommunications industries in international commercial arbitrations under LCIA, ICDR, ICC, Vienna, and UNCITRAL Rules, as well as advising corporations that were the subject of U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, U.S. Congressional, and ad hoc investigations. She is a graduate of Rice University and The University of Texas School of Law.

PIERRE BIENVENU, AD. E. is a senior partner of Norton Rose Canada, the Global Practice Leader of Norton Rose Group's international arbitration practice and a member of Norton Rose Group's supervisory board. He practises in international commercial arbitration, corporate and commercial litigation, and constitutional law. He acted as counsel in numerous international arbitrations involving disputes in telecommunications, aeronautics, joint ventures, M&A and foreign investment. He also represents parties in court proceedings to enforce or set aside arbitral awards. He serves as arbitrator in international arbitrations and has experience as sole arbitrator, party-appointed arbitrator and chairman of the tribunal. He is a member and a Vice-President of the LCIA Court. He has pleaded before the courts of Quebec, the Federal Court of Canada and the Supreme Court of Canada and participated in numerous challenges to the constitutional validity of provincial and federal legislation. His Supreme Court of Canada experience includes representing government bodies, institutions and individuals in a range of constitutional and commercial law disputes, including the Attorney General of Canada in the landmark Reference re Secession of Quebec. A fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, he is fluent in English and French.

DAVID BRYNMOR THOMAS is a Barrister, specialising in the conduct of complex commercial disputes, in particular International Commercial Arbitrations and English High Court proceedings. He has conducted disputes across a wide range of industry sectors, including major infrastructure projects and energy related disputes. Having originally qualified in Medicine before studying Law, David is particularly comfortable dealing with cases and conducting cross-examination with a highly scientific or technical basis. As well as his principal work as Counsel, David sits as an arbitrator in institutional and ad hoc arbitrations, including arbitrations under the Rules of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), the London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA) and the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules. David is a member, nominated by the United Kingdom Committee, of the International Chamber of Commerce's Commission on Arbitration. He is a Trustee of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, which he represented at the UNCITRAL Working Group on International Commercial Arbitration, participating in the Working Group's deliberations on amendments to the UNCITRAL Model Law and the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules.

MARTI CHERRY joined Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P.'s international arbitration and litigation sections in Houston as an associate in 2008 after serving as judicial law clerk to the Honorable U.S. District Judge David Hittner for two years. Marti's international arbitration practice encompasses a wide-variety of disputes for national and international clients. In addition, she has authored a number of articles and case notes in international arbitration publications and Fulbright's International Arbitration Report. An accomplished speaker, Marti presented Final Award and Court Challenges to the Houston Maritime Arbitrators Association. She recently relocated her practice to Fulbright's Dallas office.

WADE M. CORIELL is a partner in the Houston office of King & Spalding. Wade's practice focuses on representing foreign investors in disputes with host governments and private parties in international commercial disputes, particularly in the energy sector. He has represented clients before ICSID, the ICC, the AAA, the Permanent Court of Arbitration in The Hague (PCA), and other international and domestic arbitral institutions. In the 2010 edition of The Global Arbitration Review 100, he was named a "lawyer to know." Since 2005, Texas Super Lawyers and Texas Monthly have annually named him a "Rising Star" in international law. He frequently speaks and publishes on international law and arbitration issues, and among other memberships, he currently serves on the IBA's North American Forum and the Advisory Board of the Institute for Transnational Arbitration.

ALAN R. CRAIN is Senior Vice President & General Counsel of Baker Hughes Incorporated, a global technology and services company with operations in over 90 countries. He has been General Counsel of two other large multinationals. He has more than 25 year's experience as an arbitrator in a broad range of cases involving international commercial matters. He has served on more than 50 tribunals for the A.A.A., I.C.D.R., NYSE, NASD, I.C.C. and for arbitration under the UNCITRAL Rules, usually as chairman. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the American Arbitration Association (AAA). He was an adjunct Professor of International Law at the University of Houston for 10 years. He is an expert in corporate governance and has been a director of a multibillion dollar NYSE corporation, and has advised other boards of directors for over 20 years. He has been Chairman of the Houston World Affairs Council and the Houston Committee on Foreign Relations as well as serving on the Executive Board of the Philadelphia Committee on Foreign Relations. He has received many honors and awards, including the Best General Counsel Award from the Houston Business Journal and the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Texas General Counsel Forum. In addition to his J.D., Mr. Crain has earned an M.B.A. and M.S. and B.S. degrees in Engineering.

JOHN FELLAS is partner in the New York office of Hughes Hubbard & Reed LLP, practicing in the fields of international litigation and arbitration. He has practiced in both the U.S. and England, and as well as being a member of the New York Bar, he is also a Solicitor of the Supreme Court of England and Wales. He has served as counsel, and as chair, sole arbitrator and co-arbitrator, in arbitrations under the AAA, ICC and ad hoc rules. He also serves on the Mediation Panel of the District Court for the Southern District of New York. He has been recognized by, among others, Who's Who Legal - The International Who's Who Of Business Lawyers (International Arbitration); Chambers USA - Guide to America's Leading Business Lawyers (International Arbitration); Chambers Global (International Arbitration); The Best Lawyers In America (International Arbitration). He is co-editor of International Commercial Arbitration in New York (Oxford University Press 2010). He received a B.A. (Hons.) from the University of Durham, England, and both an LL.M. and an S.J.D. from the Harvard Law School.

JOHN L. GARDINER is co-head of Skadden's International Litigation and Arbitration Group. He concentrates his practice in the resolution of complex, high exposure, multijurisdictional disputes before federal and state courts, as well as leading arbitral institutions. He is among The Best Lawyers in America 2012 and he is listed in the International Who's Who of Commercial Arbitrators 2011. He also is one of the world's best international arbitration lawyers and was named both by Chambers Global: The World's Leading Lawyers for Business 2006-2007 and Chambers USA:

America's Leading Lawyers for Business 2005-2011. Mr. Gardiner's extensive litigation and arbitration experience covers a wide range of breach disputes in the aluminum, energy, insurance/reinsurance, telecommunications, construction and finance sectors. He also has acted as arbitrator in complex international corporate disputes and as mediator in intricate corporate and partnership separation situations. He has participated as counsel in many successful mediations and expert proceedings both internationally and domestically.

JUDITH GILL, Q.C. specializes in international arbitration, both institutional and ad hoc, under ICSID, LCIA, ICC and AAA Rules. She also sits as an arbitrator. Judith is qualified as a Solicitor Advocate and frequently appears as an advocate in arbitration proceedings. Judith is only the second woman solicitor-advocate to be appointed QC and the first with an international arbitration practice. Judith's practice covers a broad range of subjects including insurance, joint ventures, distributorships, healthcare, banking and investment treaty arbitration. She is a

Director of the LCIA, a former member of the LCIA Court and a member of the ICC UK Arbitration Group. Judith has also been appointed to the Board of Directors of both the Singapore International Arbitration Centre and the American Arbitration Association and is the Immediate Past Co-Chair of the Arbitration Committee of the IBA. Judith is joint author of the leading textbook "Russell on Arbitration" and has published widely on international arbitration.

TERESA GIOVANNINI has acted as counsel and arbitrator in more than 140 international arbitrations, either ad hoc or administered by various institutions (AAA/ICDR, CCIG, ICC, ICHEIC, ICSID, LCIA, SCC, Chamber of Commerce of Milan, Chamber of Commerce of Venice and Chamber of Commerce of Ticino). Teresa Giovannini is a member of several panels of arbitrators, including the ICC Swiss National Committee, the ICDR, the Beijing Arbitration Commission (BAC), the CIETAC, the CRCICA, the DIAC, the ICHEIC and the LCIA. Since 2012 she has been included on the ICOM-WIPO List of Mediators with specific expertise in art and cultural heritage. Teresa Giovannini was a member and vice-president of the LCIA Court from 2006 until 2011. She is currently a member of the Council of the ICC Institute of World Business Law, of the International Law Association Committee on Arbitration (Swiss Member), of the IBA Sub-Committee on Conflicts of Interest, of the Board of Directors of the American Arbitration Association, of the Advisory Board of the Transnational Arbitration Association, of the LCIA Company and of the Club of Arbitrators of the Milan Chamber of National and International Arbitration. She is also a member of many other professional associations, including ASA (Swiss Arbitration Association), the Swiss Society of International Law, the Swiss Society of Jurists, the Comité français de l'arbitrage, the International Arbitration Institute, the International Arbitration Club, and the International Bar Association (Arbitration and Art, Cultural Institutions and Heritage Law Committees). Teresa Giovannini is ranked by Chambers Europe since 2009, by Chambers Global since 2000 (Switzerland - Dispute resolution - Arbitrators) and by the International Who's Who of Commercial Arbitration since 2007. She is a frequent lecturer in the field of international arbitration (e.g. IBA, ICC Institute, ICCA, BIICL, CI Arb, etc.) and the author of many articles on the subject.

MICHAEL S. GOLDBERG is a senior partner at Baker Botts, with extensive experience in complex commercial and international arbitration matters. He is co-chair of the firm's international dispute resolution section (international arbitration and litigation). Mr. Goldberg has served as lead counsel in litigation matters as diverse as antitrust, banking, bankruptcy, commercial, construction, corporate acquisitions, energy, intellectual property, partnership, products liability, and real estate. He has served as lead counsel in arbitrations under the AAA, ICC, LCIA, PCA, SCC and ZCC. Mr. Goldberg's experience extends to a broad array of international matters involving clients, adversaries, and/or issues in Armenia, Brazil, Canada, China, Ecuador, France, Germany, India, Indonesia, Israel, Japan, Mexico, the Netherlands, Peru, Russia, South Korea, Sweden, Switzerland, Thailand, the United Kingdom, Venezuela and Yemen. His matters include both private and public international law issues and he represents both private parties and Sovereign states. He also sits as arbitrator. He is a frequent presenter/moderator at various international workshops and seminars concerning international arbitration and a frequent commentator on international arbitration in global news services.

DENNIS GRINDINGER is responsible for several areas: managing all Hunt Oil Company financial issues, including interacting with sources of Hunt Oil Company's capital arising in connection with acquisitions, divestitures, operations, and construction of facilities (both domestic and international); developing and implementing a strategic plan and budget for Hunt Oil Company; working with the General Counsel in the oversight and management of all legal issues affecting Hunt Oil Company; and overseeing all accounting functions of Hunt Oil Company, including the preparation of monthly, quarterly and annual reports of financial results from operations. Grindinger joined Hunt Oil Company on January 1, 2001, and for eight years served as its general counsel. Prior to joining Hunt in January 2001, Dennis Grindinger was a partner with Thompson & Knight, a leading Texas law firm. At Thompson & Knight, he focused on representing both integrated and independent oil and gas companies (working initially in the tax department and later in the corporate department). During his law career, he was involved in project financing, divestitures, acquisitions, mergers, as well as tax litigation before various courts including the U.S. Tax Court, the U.S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, the U.S. Supreme Court and the U.S. Court of Federal Claims. Dennis earned a bachelor's degree in business administration, specializing in finance, from the University of Notre Dame, and a juris doctor from Southern Methodist University.

MARK KANTOR - Until he retired from Milbank, Tweed, Hadley & McCloy LLP at the end of 1999, Mark Kantor was a partner in the Corporate and Project Finance Groups of the Firm. He currently serves as an arbitrator and mediator, and teaches courses in International Business Transactions and in International Arbitration as an Adjunct Professor at the Georgetown University Law Center. He is also a Senior Research Fellow at the Vale Columbia Program on Sustainable International Investment (a joint enterprise of Columbia Law School and the Earth Institute at Columbia University). In addition, he is Editor in Chief of Transnational Dispute Management, the global dispute resolution journal. He is listed in inter alia Who's Who Commercial Arbitration, Chambers USA (International Arbitration), and Best Lawyers in America (International Arbitration). Among other publications, he is the author of Valuation for Arbitration: Compensation Standards, Valuation Methods and Expert Evidence (Kluwer 2008).

RONNIE KING is a partner in Ashurst LLP's London office and heads his firm's International Arbitration Group. His practice is focused on the energy sector, on which he has concentrated for over 20 years. Over that period, he has acted on many of the major energy sector disputes in London. His clients include oil majors, national oil companies and leading independents. Ronnie is a fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and a member of the ICC Commission on Arbitration. He acts as both an advisor and advocate in international arbitrations and accepts appointments to sit as an arbitrator.

TOBY LANDAU QC is a barrister at Essex Court Chambers in London, and a member of the New York Bar, specialising in international arbitration. As arbitrator, he has served in over 70 major international cases, including many investment treaty cases (BITs and NAFTA) and international commercial cases (ICC, LCIA, SCC, HKIAC, SIAC, AAA, UNCITRAL amongst many others) in numerous countries worldwide. As counsel, he has appeared in over 270 major international arbitrations, as well as many of the landmark arbitration cases before the English Courts (including the UK Supreme Court) and foreign courts. He is a Director of the LCIA; a member of the Board of the SCC; a Fellow (and previously Trustee) of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and Chartered Arbitrator; a UK delegate to the UNCITRAL Working Group on Arbitration (since 2000); a member of the IBA sub-committee responsible for drafting the IBA Rules on Evidence 2010; and one of the draftsmen of the English Arbitration Act 1996; the Pakistan Arbitration Ordinance of 2005; the Mauritius Arbitration Act of 2008; and the LCIA India Rules. He is a Visiting Professor at Kings College London (arbitration law), and a visiting lecturer at the Pakistan College of Law in Lahore. He was the most junior of his year to be made a QC (in 2008). He received the Chambers & Partners Award for Silk (QC) of the year in international arbitration in 2011. Before becoming a QC, he received the Chambers & Partners Award for "Junior Barrister of the Year" in international arbitration in both 2005 and 2007 (short-listed also in 2006), and was voted "first" amongst the world's "45 under 45" in this field.

MIKE LENNON is a trial partner at Baker Botts with extensive experience in the arbitration and litigation of cross-boundary and national disputes. His practice focuses primarily on energy and natural resources, intellectual property and other commercial arbitration and litigation. He acts on behalf of clients before the leading international arbitral institutions, including ICSID, ICC, DIAC and LCIA, as well as national courts. He regularly performs his own advocacy and has argued numerous cases to arbitral tribunals, courts, and juries. He also has participated in enforcement, annulment and appellate proceedings arising from his matters. Mr. Lennon's energy and natural resources experience covers a wide range of arbitration and litigation traditional energy matters and other commercial disputes in the energy and natural resource sectors. In the intellectual property sphere, Mr. Lennon's experience includes patent, trademark and copyright infringement, trade secret misappropriation and false advertising disputes. Mr. Lennon also has successful experiences representing companies and individuals in international jurisdictional disputes and international political asylum matters. He currently serves on the advisory board of the Institute for Transnational Arbitration and the advisory board of the Institute for Energy Law of The Center for American and International Law.

ERIC C. LIEBLER is the Vice President and Associate General Counsel (Litigation) for Siemens Corporation. He manages all United States-related litigation for Siemens, and was previously the Chief Litigation Counsel for Honeywell's Automation and Control Solutions division. While in private practice before that, he was a partner at Kirkland & Ellis LLP. He is an occasional competitor at the World Series of Poker.

JAMES L. LOFTIS chairs V&E's International Dispute Resolution practice, and focuses his practice on international commercial arbitration and investor-state disputes, particularly disputes involving state contracts and investment agreements. He is a member of the ICC Commission on Arbitration, is listed in Global Arbitration Review, is the ABA's delegate to the LCIA Court of Arbitration in London, is listed in Legal Media Group's (Euromoney's) Expert Guide to Commercial Arbitration, and is ranked in international arbitration in both Chambers Global and Chambers USA. He is listed in The Best Lawyers in America® for international arbitration. From 1997 to 2000, James served in Geneva, Switzerland, as chief counsel for the Oil Sector and Construction and Engineering Panels of the United Nations Compensation Commission (the Iraq/Gulf War claims tribunal). James is also an adjunct professor of law at the University of Texas School of Law, where he teaches international investment law and international arbitration. In addition, James is Chair of the Advisory Board for the Center for Global Energy, International Arbitration and Environmental Law at the University of Texas School of Law.

CAROLE MALINVAUD is a partner in the Paris office of Gide Loyrette Nouel where she practices international arbitration since 1990 either as counsel or as arbitrator. She is currently defending investors in infrastructure projects in the Middle East and in North Africa as well as acting as arbitrator in a major infrastructure project in Northern Asia. Carole is the Chair of the Arbitration Commission of ICC France, a board member of the French Committee on Arbitration (CFA) and an Officer of the IBA Arbitration Committee. She is a member of the Paris and the New York Bars, and holds a postgraduate degree from the University of Paris II and Harvard Law School.

WENDY J. MILES is a partner at Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr in London and specializes in international arbitration. She has acted as advisor and advocate for international companies and states or state parties in arbitration proceedings conducted in a number of jurisdictions and under various rules including ICC, LCIA, HKIAC, PCA and UNCITRAL. Wendy regularly deals with both private and public international law issues. She recently has been involved in several energy-related arbitrations under both ICC and LCIA rules arising from disputes relating to off-shore oil rights and an ad hoc arbitration proceeding in a dispute arising out of a major construction project on the South Asian sub-continent. In 2009, Wendy was lead co-counsel for southern Sudan in the Abyei Arbitration boundary dispute in the oil-rich Sudan (with the entire proceedings subject to live media coverage via the internet). Wendy continues to represent clients in proceedings in the energy, telecommunications, media, insurance, construction, financial services and pharmaceutical sectors, as well as sitting as arbitrator.

ALEXIS MOURRE is a founding partner of Castaldi Mourre & Partners, a 30-lawyer firm with offices in Paris and Milan, and heads the firm's international arbitration and litigation department. He is Vice-President of the ICC International Court of Arbitration, Vice-President of the ICC Institute of World Business Law, Co-Chair of the IBA Arbitration Committee and Member of the Arbitral Council of the Milan Chamber of Commerce. He is member of numerous associations, including ASA, LCIA, the ILA Arbitration Commission and the Milan Club of arbitrators. He has acted in more than 150 both ad hoc and institutional arbitrations (both in commercial and investment cases) as counsel, expert witness, co-arbitrator, chairman or sole arbitrator. He is author, co-author or editor of several books and founder of the Cahiers de l'arbitrage/The Paris Journal of International Arbitration, a leading French publication on arbitration and ADR. He lectures on arbitration in several universities and has published more than 90 articles on arbitration and private international law.

SYLVIA NOURY is a partner in the London office of Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP, having practiced previously in the Paris and New York offices. Sylvia represents states and corporations in a variety of commercial and investment treaty arbitrations, including under the auspices of ICSID, UNCITRAL, ICC, AAA and LCIA, both in English and Spanish, specialising in energy and natural resources and telecommunications disputes. Sylvia has recently acted for several energy companies in disputes arising from measures taken by the Governments of Argentina, Bolivia and Venezuela, including the landmark case of CMS Gas Transmission v Argentina. She is currently advising two major telecommunications companies on several disputes in the Middle East and Africa, including against the Government of Yemen. Sylvia is a Member of the Editorial Board of Global Arbitration Review and has published widely in the field of arbitration; her latest publication being a Concise Commentary on the ICSID Convention (Petrochilos, Noury and Kalderimis, Kluwer 2010). Prior to joining Freshfields, Sylvia interned at the Buenos Aires office of Marval, O'Farrell & Mairal.

EUN YOUNG PARK is co-head of Kim & Chang's international arbitration and litigation group. He has extensive experience as counsel in international arbitrations under the various arbitration rules including ICC, LCIA, AAA, SIAC, HKIAC, SCC, UNCITRAL, and the KCAB. He also serves as an arbitrator with the SIAC, DIAC, ACICA, and KCAB. He is a court member of the LCIA, member of Panel of Conciliators in the ICSID of the World Bank, and Vice President of Korean Arbitrators Association.

He has received J.S.D. from NYU School of Law after completing legal education at SNU Law School in Korea and is currently an adjunct professor with SKK University Law School. He is also members of Korean and New York bars.

PHILIPPE PINSOLLE is a partner at Shearman & Sterling LLP in Paris, and specializes in international arbitration. He has been involved, as counsel or arbitrator, in more than a hundred and fifty international arbitrations, both institutional (ICC, ICSID, LCIA, SCC, AFA, Swiss Rules, etc.) and ad hoc, concerning such activities as investment, oil and gas, energy, telecom or defense industry. He is a member of the Paris Bar and of the Bar of England & Wales (Gray's Inn). He is the author of numerous articles and case-notes on international arbitration.

LUCA G. RADICATI DI BROZOLO is a partner of Bonelli Erede Pappalardo (Milan-London) and a professor at the Catholic University of Milan, where he also teaches Law of International Arbitration and Transnational Commercial Law. He practices international arbitration (including investment arbitration) and litigation, as well as private international law, European law and competition law, with a focus on private antitrust litigation. He is the author of five books and approximately one hundred articles on different topics on arbitration, public and private international law, European Union law and antitrust law, and co-editor of the leading Italian commentary of the law of arbitration. He is a member of the International Court of Arbitration of the ICC, a rapporteur of the Committee on International Commercial Arbitration of the International Law Association, a member of the European Commission's Expert Group on the Interface between Arbitration and the Brussels I Regulation, Chair of the IBA Committee on the Recognition of Foreign Judgments and of the American Law Institute, a member of the American Law Institute, Consultative Group on the Restatement (Third), International Commercial Arbitration.

HILMAR RAESCHKE-KESSLER (LLM, FCIArb) practices law as Rechtsanwalt beim Bundesgerichtshof (member of the Bar of the German Federal Court of Justice). He has acted as Chairman or party appointed arbitrator in numerous international and national arbitrations. Recent disputes have involved M&A, telecommunications, government contracts (public procurement), foreign investment, international trade, privatisation, joint ventures. He is honorary professor at the University of Cologne, lecturing on International Arbitration. He has been a member of the IBA working groups on the 1999 IBA Rules of Evidence in International Arbitration, their 2010 review and on Conflicts of Interest in International Arbitration. He is a member of the executive board of the International Law Association - ILA -, board member of the German Arbitration Institution - DIS -, a member of the ICC Commission on International Arbitration and is observer for the new Chapters of the UNIDROIT Principles on Commercial Contracts. He publishes frequently on issues of international arbitration. Rankings include Chambers Global 2012 and Euromoney, The Best of the Best 2011.

LUCY REED, who currently serves as Chair of the ITA, co-heads the Freshfields global international arbitration group. She represents private and public clients and occasionally sits as arbitrator in international arbitrations under the major rules. Lucy is a member of the LCIA Court and the ICC Commission on Arbitration, and was recently designated by ICSID to the ICSID Panel of Arbitrators. She has served as an arbitrator on the Eritrea-Ethiopia Claims Commission, co-director of the Claims Resolution Tribunal for Dormant Accounts in Switzerland and, while with the State Department, the U.S. Agent to the Iran-U.S. Claims Tribunal. Lucy is co-author of the Freshfields Guide to Arbitration Clauses in International Contracts and the Guide to ICSID Arbitration (both published by Kluwer). She served as President of the American Society of International Law (2008-2010) and is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations.

KLAUS REICHERT, S.C. is a barrister in practice at Brick Court Chambers in London and at the Bar of Ireland. He has served as arbitrator and counsel in over one hundred international cases in many jurisdictions pursuant to rules including LCIA, ICC, ICDR, UNCITRAL, LCIA-DIFC and ICSID. He is a member of the LPD Council of the International Bar Association, the Executive Boards of the ITA and Arbitration Ireland and the ICC Irish National Committee. He was counsel for Dallah in the landmark case on the New York Convention before the English Courts. He was the chair of the Host Committee for ICCA 2008 in Dublin and in 2012 lectured on international arbitration at The Hague Academy of International Law, Seminar for Advanced Studies.

JAVIER H. RUBINSTEIN is the Global General Counsel of PricewaterhouseCoopers. Prior to joining PricewaterhouseCoopers in 2006, Javier was a litigation partner in the Chicago office of Mayer, Brown, LLP, where he led the firm's international arbitration practice, representing private and public clients in arbitral proceedings before ICSID, the ICC, ICDR, Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, the Court of Arbitration for Sport and ad hoc tribunals. A native of Argentina, Javier also is a Lecturer in Law at the University of Chicago Law School, where teaches International Commercial Arbitration. He also serves as the corporate counsel liaison to the Arbitration Committee of the International Bar Association and on the Board of Directors of the American Arbitration Association. Javier has published several articles and book chapters on the subject of international arbitration.

FERNANDO EDUARDO SEREC - Head partner of TozziniFreire Advogados' Litigation and Arbitration practice groups. He has broad experience in the areas of international litigation and arbitration, and has handled international arbitrations in Brazil, US and Europe before all major arbitration institutions, including the ICC, ICDR, and LCIA. Subjects of these arbitrations have included M&A transactions, joint venture agreements, infrastructure projects, insurance coverage, construction contracts, distribution agreements and intellectual property, among others. Graduated in 1985 from Mackenzie School of Law, São Paulo; LL.M. in Civil Law from University of São Paulo; studied at the Academy of American and International Law, Dallas, 1993. Fernando is a member of the Advisory Board of the Institute for Transnational Arbitration and is constantly recognized and recommended as leader in the most important international legal publications, such as Chambers Global, Chambers Latin America, Global Arbitration Review, Latin Lawyer 250, PLC Which Lawyer?, International Financial Law Review 1000, Expert Guides and The International Who's Who Legal.

EDUARDO SILVA ROMERO specialises in litigation and arbitration matters, particularly international disputes involving state entities, as well as Spanish and Latin American parties. An acknowledged expert in international arbitration, Mr. Silva Romero has supervised numerous proceedings before arbitration panels worldwide. Former Deputy Counsel, Counsel, and Deputy Secretary General of the ICC International Court of Arbitration, Mr. Silva advised or acted as arbitrator on arbitration matters conducted under the auspices of the ICC, ICSID, AAA, LCIA, DIAC, Cairo Regional Centre for International Arbitration, Bogota Chamber of Commerce and the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce as well as in ad-hoc proceedings under the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules. Mr. Silva Romero is a Lecturer on Arbitration at the University of Paris-Dauphine (Paris IX), on International Contracts and International Commercial Arbitration at the Paris Institute for Political Studies (Sciences Po), Director and Professor of International Law at the University of Rosario's Law School in Bogota and Honorary Associate of International Law at the University of Dundee (Scotland). He is also a regular speaker at numerous conferences, seminars and courses in Europe, the US and Latin America. Mr. Silva Romero published dozens of books and articles on international arbitration and other matters. Mr. Silva Romero joined Dechert LLP from Coudert Brothers' Paris office in 2005.

JENNIFER SMITH is a partner with Baker Botts and currently serves as Deputy Chairman of the Litigation Department. Ms. Smith has practiced law in the United States and England, and she is licensed in both jurisdictions. Her practice focuses primarily on international arbitration and dispute resolution. She served as law clerk to Judge Lynn N. Hughes in the Southern District of Texas after receiving her J.D. with honors from the University of Texas and B.A. magna cum laude from Wellesley College. Ms. Smith also serves on the Advisory Boards of the Institute for Energy Law, the World Affairs Council of Houston, the University of Texas Center for Global Energy, International Arbitration and Environmental Law, and the Blaffer Gallery.

GUIDO SANTIAGO TAWIL is a Chair Professor of Administrative Law at the Universidad de Buenos Aires (UBA) and a Partner at M. & M. Bomchil (Buenos Aires) since 1993 where he heads the international arbitration and regulatory practices. He also serves as Chair of the Latin American Arbitration Association (Alarb); Council Member of ICCA; Court Member of the LCIA; Member of the Academic Council of ITA; Member of the ICC's Latin American Arbitration Group; Member of FIAA's Executive Committee, etc. He is past co-chair of the IBA's Arbitration Committee and of its Latin American Forum. He has published 7 books and over 130 articles related to his areas of practice. He actively appears as arbitrator, counsel or legal expert both in ad hoc and institutional arbitrations. He received his law degree (1983), LL. M. (1986), and Ph. D.(1991) from the UBA. He has been awarded with the Buenos Aires School of Law Award for the best doctoral dissertation and with the "Alejandro E. Shaw Award" by the Buenos Aires Bar.

THOMAS W. WALSH, who currently serves as Chair of the ITA's Young Arbitrators' Initiative, is an associate in the New York office of Sullivan & Cromwell LLP. He focuses his practice on complex multijurisdictional litigation in U.S. federal and state courts, and international commercial and investor-state arbitration. Tom is a Deputy General Editor of Arbitration International and a member of the Arbitration Committee of the New York City Bar Association. Following his graduation from the University of California, Berkeley School of Law, he served as a law clerk to Judge Juan R. Torruella of the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit. Tom was a Fulbright Scholar in Ecuador from 2000 to 2001. He is a frequent author on international arbitration topics.

24th Annual ITA Workshop:

THE FINAL CURTAIN: POST-HEARING SUBMISSIONS, DELIBERATIONS AND ENFORCEMENT

June 21, 2012
Westin Galleria Hotel
Dallas, Texas

CHAIR, INSTITUTE FOR TRANSNATIONAL ARBITRATION

LUCY REED, who currently serves as Chair of the ITA, co-heads the Freshfields global international arbitration group. She represents private and public clients and occasionally sits as arbitrator in international arbitrations under the major rules. Lucy is a member of the LCIA Court and the ICC Commission on Arbitration, and was recently designated by ICSID to the ICSID Panel of Arbitrators. She has served as an arbitrator on the Eritrea-Ethiopia Claims Commission, co-director of the Claims Resolution Tribunal for Dormant Accounts in Switzerland and, while with the State Department, the U.S. Agent to the Iran-U.S. Claims Tribunal. Lucy is co-author of the Freshfields Guide to Arbitration Clauses in International Contracts and the Guide to ICSID Arbitration (both published by Kluwer). She served as President of the American Society of International Law (2008-2010) and is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations.

WORKSHOP CO-CHAIRS

TAI-HENG CHENG, partner at Quinn Emanuel Urquhart Oliver & Hedges, LLP, and tenured professor at New York Law School, specializes in international arbitration and litigation. He is a member of the panels of neutrals of the AAA/ICDR, CPR and HKIAC, and has served as chair, arbitrator, counsel and expert in investor-state disputes and international commercial arbitrations, under ICDR, ICC, UNCITRAL, JAMS, SCC and ICSID rules. He has also served as counsel in multi-jurisdiction proceedings in the United States and abroad. Prof. Cheng is also co-director of the Institute for Global Law, Justice and Policy, New York Law School, where he has been since 2006. He was a visiting associate professor at Vanderbilt Law School and City University of Hong Kong School of Law in 2010 and 2008, respectively. From 2003 to 2006, Prof. Cheng practiced law at Simpson Thacher & Bartlett, LLP. U.S. Federal Appeals and District Courts have cited and relied on Professor Cheng's international law scholarship as authoritative. He is an elected member of the American Law Institute, the Executive Council of the American Society of International Law, and the Executive Committee and Academic Council of the Institute for Transnational Arbitration.

PHILIPPE PINSOLLE is a partner at Shearman & Sterling LLP in Paris, and specializes in international arbitration. He has been involved, as counsel or arbitrator, in more than a hundred and fifty international arbitrations, both institutional (ICC, ICSID, LCIA, SCC, AFA, Swiss Rules, etc.) and ad hoc, concerning such activities as investment, oil and gas, energy, telecom or defense industry. He is a member of the Paris Bar and of the Bar of England & Wales (Gray's Inn). He is the author of numerous articles and case-notes on international arbitration.

JENNIFER SMITH is a partner with Baker Botts and currently serves as Deputy Chairman of the Litigation Department. Ms. Smith has practiced law in the United States and England, and she is licensed in both jurisdictions. Her practice focuses primarily on international arbitration and dispute resolution. She served as law clerk to Judge Lynn N. Hughes in the Southern District of Texas after receiving her J.D. with honors from the University of Texas and B.A. magna cum laude from Wellesley College. Ms. Smith also serves on the Advisory Boards of the Institute for Energy Law, the World Affairs Council of Houston, the University of Texas Center for Global Energy, International Arbitration and Environmental Law, and the Blaffer Gallery.

LUNCHEON SPEAKER

R. DOAK BISHOP - Partner in King & Spalding's Houston Office. Co-Chair of Firm's International Arbitration Practice Group. B.A. degree with high honors and departmental distinction from Southern Methodist University (1973), and J.D. degree with honors from the University of Texas Law School (1976), Research Editor of the Texas Law Review. Over 35 years of legal practice, with a focus on international arbitration and foreign investment disputes. Board Certified in Civil Trial Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. Board of Directors of the American Arbitration Association; Board of Trustees of the Center for American and International Law; Vice-Chair of the Institute of Transnational Arbitration; Member, U.S. delegation to the NAFTA Advisory Committee on Private Commercial Disputes; Advisor to the American Law Institute's Restatement of the Law (3rd) of International Commercial Arbitration; Adjunct Professor, SMU Law School (1999) (International Commercial Arbitration) and University of Houston Law School (2002) (Foreign Investment Disputes); Co-Chair, International Litigation Committee of ABA's Litigation Section (1998-2000); Chair, Litigation Section of the State Bar of Texas (1998-1999). Specialties in international arbitration of international energy disputes, investment and infrastructure disputes, construction disputes, and environment issues. Registered more than 30 ICSID arbitrations and represented investors in about 40 investment arbitrations against foreign governments. Arbitrator in about 70 arbitrations, including NAFTA and BIT arbitrations under the UNCITRAL Rules. Editor, The Art of Advocacy in International Arbitration (2nd ed. Juris Publishing 2010); co-author with Professor James Crawford and Professor Michael Reisman, Foreign Investment Disputes: Cases, Materials and Commentaries (Kluwers, 2005); Editor, Enforcement of Arbitral Awards Against Sovereigns (Juris 2009).

PLAYERS & COMMENTATORS

CATHERINE M. AMIRFAR is a litigation partner based in the New York office of Debevoise & Plimpton LLP. Her practice focuses on international commercial and treaty arbitration, and international and complex commercial litigation. She routinely acts as counsel in international arbitration cases arising under the rules of the major arbitral institutions, and her recent representations include disputes involving Latin America and disputes dealing with the gas, energy and financial industry sectors. She has argued in a variety of international fora and is among the youngest advocates to argue before the International Court of Justice. She has been ranked as a leading practitioner in the field of international arbitration by Chambers USA (2010), Chambers Global (2012), Chambers Latin America (2011), and Legal 500 US (2011). She was recently selected as a "Future Star" in Benchmark Litigation (2012) and was recognized by the Global Arbitration Review last year in its "45 under 45," a selection of the 45 leading figures of the international arbitration bar under the age of 45. She is currently authoring, with Donald Donovan, a book to be published by Cambridge University Press entitled, From the World Court to the United States Supreme Court: The Vienna Convention Litigation and Its Impact on International Law. She is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations.

OLIVER ARMÁS is a partner in the New York office of Chadbourne & Parke LLP and co-head of its International Disputes Resolution Group. He practices in the fields of international litigation and arbitration, and has served as counsel, and as chair, sole arbitrator and co-arbitrator, in arbitrations under the AAA/ICDR, ICC, LCIA, ICSID and ad hoc rules. He has been recognized by, among others, Who's Who Legal - The International Who's Who Of Business Lawyers (International Arbitration); Chambers USA - Guide to America's Leading Business Lawyers (International Arbitration); Chambers Global (International Arbitration); Chambers Latin America (International Arbitration). He is the author of numerous articles and speaks frequently on international arbitration. He received a B.A., M.P.A. and J.D. from New York University.

JULIE BÉDARD concentrates her practice on international litigation and arbitration. She regularly advises clients on the drafting of dispute resolution clauses and has served as counsel in international arbitration proceedings held under the auspices of the International Chamber of Commerce, the American Arbitration Association, the International Centre for Dispute Resolution and the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes. Ms. Bédard has been selected for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America (2012), Global Arbitration Review's 45 under 45 (2011), Chambers Global: The World's Leading Lawyers for Business (2011), Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business (2009-2011), Chambers Latin America (2011), Global Arbitration Review's International Who's Who of Commercial Arbitration (2011-2012) and Euromoney's Guide to the World's Leading Commercial Arbitration Experts (2011).

FRED G. BENNETT - Mr. Bennett has over 30 years experience as an advocate and arbitrator in international and domestic arbitration. He is the head of the firm's arbitration practice, and was the head of the worldwide ADR practice group at his former firm, Gibson Dunn & Crutcher. As an advocate, Mr. Bennett has arbitrated internationally and domestically, complex technical and business disputes in almost every area of business endeavor. Mr. Bennett's experience in complex contractual disputes includes disputes arising from architectural engineering and construction; contracts relating to the oil and gas industry; contracts involving commercial and residential real estate projects; manufacturing contracts; patent and IP licensing contracts; complex insurance coverage disputes; and distributorship contracts and partnership agreements. As an arbitrator, Mr. Bennett is a member of the AAA's national Board of Directors, the Executive Committee of the Board, and the Board's Nominating and Governance Committee. He has presided over numerous arbitration proceedings for the International Chamber of Commerce, the American Arbitration Association, and the AAA's International Center for Dispute Resolution (ICDR). He sits on the AAA's Large Complex Case Panels for commercial and construction disputes, and the ICDR panel for international disputes. For many years he was Chairman of the AAA's continuing education program for LCCP arbitrators in Southern California. He has also served for many years as a member of the U.S. National Committee responsible for administering ICC arbitration work within the United States, and is currently Chairman of its Southwest Subcommittee. He is also a U.S. representative on the ICC Commission. He is now chairing an international task force responsible for modernizing the AAA's domestic and international rules pertaining to the pre-hearing exchange and production of information. Mr. Bennett is a frequent guest lecturer on major domestic and international arbitration conferences and is the author of numerous publications on arbitration. He is the primary coeditor of Redfern and Hunter on International Arbitration, 5th edition 2010. Mr. Bennett received the ILO award for the outstanding arbitration practitioner in the U.S. in 2010.

DOMINIQUE BROWN-BERSET is a founding partner of Brown&Page, a law firm with offices in Geneva and Nyon specializing in dispute resolution, contract and commercial law, and public international law. She practices mainly in the field of international arbitration and business transactions. She is listed, inter alia, on the HKIAC, JCAA, KLRCA Panels of Arbitrators. She holds law degrees from Lausanne University Law School (Switzerland), Paris I, Panthéon-Sorbonne (France) and Harvard Law School (U.S.A). She is a Member of the Management Board and of the Supervisory Council of the Swiss Institute of Comparative Law. She has been acting as counsel, co-counsel and arbitrator in more than 170 international arbitration cases around the world, including in cases involving States and international organizations both at private and governmental levels, and in particular in cases relating to transfer of technology, construction of turnkey factories and other major infrastructure projects (roads, bridges, pipelines), procurement contracts, license agreements, agency, joint venture and shareholders' agreements, distribution, sale and purchase contracts, telecom, post M&A disputes and the like. Her industry experience includes telecommunications, satellites, aviation, avionics, computers (software and hardware), glass and paper production, steel, chemicals and petrochemicals, LNG projects, electricity, oil and gas (and other energy sectors), mining, food, catering, utilities operation and maintenance services, pharmaceuticals and biotechnology, shipping and shipbuilding, luxury goods, textiles and the arts, financial services and real estate. Dominique has a special interest and experience in dispute resolution tools in relation to arbitration that lead to faster commercial solutions.

TERESA CHENG GBS SC JP FICE, FCIArb is a Senior Counsel, Chartered Arbitrator and Accredited Mediator. She is a Vice President of the International Council of Commercial Arbitration (ICCA), Vice-President of the ICC International Court of Arbitration, as well as, and Vice Chairperson of Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (HKIAC). She is a member of the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) panel of Arbitrators, designated by the Chairman of the ICSID Administrative Council. She was Past President of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CIArb), and a past Chairman of its East Asia Branch. She is also Council Member of China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Committee (CIETAC); a Councilor of Asia Pacific Users' Council of the London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA) and a panel arbitrator of Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS). She also sits as a Deputy Judge in the Court of First Instance of the High Court of Hong Kong. Ms Cheng is a Fellow of King's College, London, and Visiting Professor of the School of Law of Tsinghua University, Beijing. Ms Cheng has co-authored numerous books and articles in journals and seminars. Some of her recent publications include "Construction Law and Practice in Hong Kong" and "Arbitration in Hong Kong: A Practical Guide", published by Sweet & Maxwell, as well as papers in the "International Council for Commercial Arbitration Congress Series", published by Kluwer Law International.

LOUIS DEGOS, a partner in the Paris office of K&L Gates LLP, is a barrister at the Paris Bar and focuses his practice in commercial litigation, arbitration, and alternative dispute resolution. He pleads regularly before French state courts and arbitral (ad hoc and institutional) tribunals in domestic and international disputes. Mr. Degos has taken part in some 80 arbitrations as a counsel or as an arbitrator (President of Arbitral Tribunal, co-arbitrator or sole arbitrator) in domestic and international arbitrations, ad hoc or following arbitration rules (ICC, Swiss rules of international arbitration, UNCITRAL, etc.). He frequently represents parties in alternative dispute resolution proceedings and advises parties within the framework of mediations and other alternative dispute resolution modes, such as assisted negotiation or mini-trial. He is often appointed mediator, both in domestic and international disputes. Mr. Degos is also well-known for his particular knowledge in arbitration law and his litigation experience in disputes following or related to an arbitration. He has been recently elected by his peers member of the Board of the Paris Bar.

RICHARD DEUTSCH is a partner at Andrews Kurth LLP in Houston who focuses his practice on international arbitration. His practice includes all aspects of energy disputes. He has represented and advised clients in commercial arbitrations and in investor-state arbitrations arising from bilateral investment treaties and the North American Free Trade Agreement, including representation of the claimant in the largest award rendered in a NAFTA claim while working at another firm. His experience includes ad hoc arbitrations under the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules, as well as institutional arbitrations under the rules of the ICSID Convention (and Additional Facility), AAA (ICDR), ICC and the Cairo Regional International Arbitration Centre. Rich is on the adjunct faculty for the St. Gallen (Switzerland) Executive Master of International Business Law Program and has been an adjunct professor at the University of Texas School of Law teaching "International Investor-State Arbitration." He is on the advisory board of the ITA and is on the Steering Group of the ABA's International Arbitration Committee.

JUDITH GILL, Q.C. specializes in international arbitration, both institutional and ad hoc, under ICSID, LCIA, ICC and AAA Rules. She also sits as an arbitrator. Judith is qualified as a Solicitor Advocate and frequently appears as an advocate in arbitration proceedings. Judith is only the second woman solicitor-advocate to be appointed QC and the first with an international arbitration practice. Judith's practice covers a broad range of subjects including insurance, joint ventures, distributorships, healthcare, banking and investment treaty arbitration. She is a Director of the LCIA, a former member of the LCIA Court and a member of the ICC UK Arbitration Group. Judith has also been appointed to the Board of Directors of both the Singapore International Arbitration Centre and the American Arbitration Association and is the Immediate Past Co-Chair of the Arbitration Committee of the IBA. Judith is joint author of the leading textbook "Russell on Arbitration" and has published widely on international arbitration.

TERESA GIOVANNINI has acted as counsel and arbitrator in more than 140 international arbitrations, either ad hoc or administered by various institutions (AAA/ICDR, CCIG, ICC, ICHEIC, ICSID, LCIA, SCC, Chamber of Commerce of Milan, Chamber of Commerce of Venice and Chamber of Commerce of Ticino). Teresa Giovannini is a member of several panels of arbitrators, including the ICC Swiss National Committee, the ICDR, the Beijing Arbitration Commission (BAC), the CIETAC, the CRCICA, the DIAC, the ICHEIC and the LCIA. Since 2012 she has been included on the ICOM-WIPO List of Mediators with specific expertise in art and cultural heritage. Teresa Giovannini was a member and vice-president of the LCIA Court from 2006 until 2011. She is currently a member of the Council of the ICC Institute of World Business Law, of the International Law Association Committee on Arbitration (Swiss Member), of the IBA Sub-Committee on Conflicts of Interest, of the Board of Directors of the American Arbitration Association, of the Advisory Board of the Transnational Arbitration Association, of the LCIA Company and of the Club of Arbitrators of the Milan Chamber of National and International Arbitration. She is also a member of many other professional associations, including ASA (Swiss Arbitration Association), the Swiss Society of International Law, the Swiss Society of Jurists, the Comité français de l'arbitrage, the International Arbitration Institute, the International Arbitration Club, and the International Bar Association (Arbitration and Art, Cultural Institutions and Heritage Law Committees). Teresa Giovannini is ranked by Chambers Europe since 2009, by Chambers Global since 2000 (Switzerland - Dispute resolution - Arbitrators) and by the International Who's Who of Commercial Arbitration since 2007. She is a frequent lecturer in the field of international arbitration (e.g. IBA, ICC Institute, ICCA, BIICL, CI Arb, etc.) and the author of many articles on the subject.

MARK L. GREENBERG - Graduate of the University of Florida (undergraduate) - Graduate of South Texas College of Law, Houston, Texas - Member of the Texas Bar and Licensed to practice before the Federal District Courts for the Southern District of Texas - Was in private practice for three years prior to moving in-house with Pennzoil Products Company, the motor oil division of Pennzoil Company (now part of Shell Oil Company) - have been general counsel for a division of Baker Hughes Incorporated and Bear Sterns (now part of JPMorgan Chase - have been Senior Counsel for Enron Corporation (Emerging Markets) and Citigroup Energy Company (a division of Citigroup) - Currently Head of North American Legal for Mercuria Energy Group and General Counsel for Mercuria Energy Company - have spent the last 13 years in the commodity business - have participated in numerous US-based and European-based arbitration matters - mostly as in-house counsel.

LUCY GREENWOOD is a qualified solicitor in England and Wales, an accredited Foreign Legal Consultant in Texas and a member of the Fulbright & Jaworski International Arbitration Group. She is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and is a member of the Executive Committee of the North American Branch of the Chartered Institute. She is also a member of the Young & International Global Advisory Board of the International Centre for Dispute Resolution. She has served as counsel in cases under the LCIA, UNCITRAL, ICC, LMAA, and ICDR Arbitration Rules seated in England, France, Switzerland, United States, Italy and Russia and involving international law and the laws of Switzerland, France, England, Texas, Chile, India, Hungary, Trinidad and Venezuela. She has particular experience with oil and gas disputes and questions of interpretation and construction under English law. She graduated in Law from Cambridge University and has practiced law in England, France and the United States.

MARK KANTOR - Until he retired from Milbank, Tweed, Hadley & McCloy LLP at the end of 1999, Mark Kantor was a partner in the Corporate and Project Finance Groups of the Firm. He currently serves as an arbitrator and mediator, and teaches courses in International Business Transactions and in International Arbitration as an Adjunct Professor at the Georgetown University Law Center. He is also a Senior Research Fellow at the Vale Columbia Program on Sustainable International Investment (a joint enterprise of Columbia Law School and the Earth Institute at Columbia University). In addition, he is Editor in Chief of Transnational Dispute Management, the global dispute resolution journal. He is listed in inter alia Who's Who Commercial Arbitration, Chambers USA (International Arbitration), and Best Lawyers in America (International Arbitration). Among other publications, he is the author of Valuation for Arbitration: Compensation Standards, Valuation Methods and Expert Evidence (Kluwer 2008).

ELIE KLEIMAN joined Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP's dispute resolution group in August 2000 as partner of the litigation and arbitration groups and is now managing partner of the Paris office. He specialises in international commercial arbitration and litigation. He has intervened in disputes involving investment, trade, joint ventures, long-term contracts, representation and warranties, licensing, distribution and construction in a wide range of sectors such as energy and natural resources, chemicals, infrastructure and transport, financial institutions, telecommunications, pharmaceuticals, media and technology. He also has experience as an arbitrator in international and domestic commercial disputes and as counsel in mediations. Elie often speaks at seminars and conferences on arbitration and litigation and has also published widely in the field of international dispute resolution. He has been recognized by, among others, Who's Who Legal in Commercial Arbitration and Chambers Global.

WILLIAM H. KNULL, III is co-chair of the international arbitration practice of Mayer Brown LLP. A graduate of Yale University and the University of Virginia School of Law, he has been engaged for more than 30 years in a practice concentrated in arbitration and litigation of international commercial and investment disputes. He has been lead counsel in multi-billion dollar disputes involving contractual, operational, accounting, governance, jurisdictional and related issues arising from projects, transactions and investments in Europe, Latin America and Central and East Asia. In addition to the Advisory Board of the ITA, he is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, vice chair of the committee on litigation and dispute resolution of the Institute for Energy Law and a director of the World Affairs Council of Houston.

BARRY LEON is a Partner and Head of the International Arbitration Group at Perley-Robertson, Hill & McDougall LLP in Ottawa, Canada. He is the Chair of ICC Canada. Barry has more than 30 years of experience as counsel, acting on many complex and significant cases for a wide variety of clients and involving many different industries, including financial services, natural resources, energy, technology, intellectual property, manufacturing and construction. He serves as a commercial arbitrator and mediator, including with ADR Chambers and Arbitration Place, and is a member of the ICDR's Panel of Arbitrators. Barry is an International Mediation Institute (IMI) Certified Mediator. Global Arbitration Review's GAR 100 named Barry "one of Canada's most high-profile arbitration practitioners". His many activities include the Advisory Board of the Canadian Association of Progressive Muslims, the ICC Commission on Arbitration, and Co-chair of The Advocates' Society's Arbitration and Mediation Advocacy Practice Group.

JAMES L. LOFTIS chairs V&E's International Dispute Resolution practice, and focuses his practice on international commercial arbitration and investor-state disputes, particularly disputes involving state contracts and investment agreements. He is a member of the ICC Commission on Arbitration, is listed in Global Arbitration Review, is the ABA's delegate to the LCIA Court of Arbitration in London, is listed in Legal Media Group's (Euromoney's) Expert Guide to Commercial Arbitration, and is ranked in international arbitration in both Chambers Global and Chambers USA. He is listed in The Best Lawyers in America® for international arbitration. From 1997 to 2000, James served in Geneva, Switzerland, as chief counsel for the Oil Sector and Construction and Engineering Panels of the United Nations Compensation Commission (the Iraq/Gulf War claims tribunal). James is also an adjunct professor of law at the University of Texas School of Law, where he teaches international investment law and international arbitration. In addition, James is Chair of the Advisory Board for the Center for Global Energy, International Arbitration and Environmental Law at the University of Texas School of Law.

GIOVANNA MICHELI is the Supervisor of the Americas Team of the International Centre for Dispute Resolution (ICDR), the international division of the American Arbitration Association (AAA), in New York. She oversees the ICDR's caseload including hundreds of large complex multi-party arbitrations and mediations covering all types of disputes and industries each year. She is the past Chair of the Clout Abstract Project of the Alumni Association of the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot (MAA) in cooperation with UNCITRAL and Queen Mary University of London. She represents the MAA as its NGO delegate at the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) Working Group on International Commercial Arbitration, participating in the Working Group's deliberations on amendments to the UNCITRAL Model Law and its recent amendments to the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules. She successfully coaches the Vis Moot Team of Harvard Law School since 2010. She is an associate of Pace University's Institute of International Commercial Law and a member of various ADR associations. She speaks fluent English, Italian and is proficient in French. Prior to joining the ICDR in 2007, Giovanna has worked for mid-size law firms in Germany and in Italy. After her studies at the University of Pisa and at L.U.I.S.S. - University of Rome, she was admitted to practice law in Italy. She has obtained an LL.M. in Admiralty from Tulane Law School and is also admitted to practice law in New York.

WENDY J. MILES is a partner at Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr in London and specializes in international arbitration. She has acted as advisor and advocate for international companies and states or state parties in arbitration proceedings conducted in a number of jurisdictions and under various rules including ICC, LCIA, HKIAC, PCA and UNCITRAL. Wendy regularly deals with both private and public international law issues. She recently has been involved in several energy-related arbitrations under both ICC and LCIA rules arising from disputes relating to off-shore oil rights and an ad hoc arbitration proceeding in a dispute arising out of a major construction project on the South Asian sub-continent. In 2009, Wendy was lead co-counsel for southern Sudan in the Abyei Arbitration boundary dispute in the oil-rich Sudan (with the entire proceedings subject to live media coverage via the internet). Wendy continues to represent clients in proceedings in the energy, telecommunications, media, insurance, construction, financial services and pharmaceutical sectors, as well as sitting as arbitrator.

MARK MORRILL is Senior Vice-President, Deputy General Counsel of Viacom the global media company which includes the MTV, Nickelodeon, Comedy Central, CMT and BET cable networks, Paramount Pictures and more than 300 online properties. Mark joined the Company as General Counsel of Simon & Schuster and has had significant involvement in major transactions, litigations, arbitrations and mediations, regulatory and compliance matters. He also has environmental, mass tort and insurance experience relating to Viacom's predecessor companies Gulf + Western and Westinghouse Electric Company. Mark is a U.S. representative to the ICC Commission on Arbitration and is Co-Chair of the Corporate Counsel Subcommittee of the U.S. Council for International Business (USCIB) Arbitration Committee. He is the 2011-12 Chair of the New York City Bar Association's Executive Committee and Vice President-elect of the Association. Mark is the 2012 Chair of the Chief Litigation Counsel Association and also serves on the Strategic Litigation Committee of the U.S. Chamber's National Chamber Litigation Center and the Legal Policy Advisory Board of the Washington Legal Foundation. He is a graduate of Columbia Law School.

JOSEPH E. NEUHAUS is a partner at Sullivan & Cromwell LLP and is head of the firm's arbitration practice. His practice is focused on international commercial litigation in both arbitral and court settings, with particular emphasis on Latin American matters. He has served as counsel and arbitrator in numerous arbitral proceedings, including ad hoc proceedings, arbitrations administered by the ICC and the AAA along with arbitrations involving sovereign entities. He also has served as counsel in a variety of arbitration-related disputes in court. Mr. Neuhaus has been consistently recognized as a leading practitioner in international arbitration by Chambers & Partners, Global Arbitration Review, Euromoney and other publications. Mr. Neuhaus co-authored A Guide to the UNCITRAL Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration and has authored numerous articles on arbitration-related topics. He holds a J.D. from Columbia University and clerked for Judge Carl Mcgowan of the D.C. Circuit Court of Appeals, Justice Lewis F. Powell, Jr., of the United States Supreme Court and Howard M. Holtzmann of the Iran-United States Claims Tribunal.

JULIA J. PECK is an associate with Quinn Emanuel Urquhart Oliver & Hedges, LLP in New York. Her practice specializes in international arbitration and litigation, complex commercial and business litigation, and government investigations and regulatory work. She received her law degree from Yale Law School and her undergraduate degree from the University of California, Los Angeles. She is a co-author of the International Arbitration chapter for the forthcoming American Society of International Law's judicial bench book on international law.

DIETMAR W. PRAGER is counsel (and will be partner as of 1 July 2012) at Debevoise & Plimpton LLP in New York where he focuses his practice on international dispute settlement. Dr. Prager has represented parties before the ICJ, ICSID, ICC, AAA, the 1930 Hague Agreement Tribunal, and several ad hoc arbitration tribunals in proceedings conducted in English, Spanish, Portuguese, French and German. He regularly represents Latin American clients in international arbitration proceedings and argued on behalf of Mexico before the International Court of Justice in the Avena and Other Mexican Nationals case. Dr. Prager has sat as arbitrator and regularly advises corporate clients on potential claims under, among others, contracts and bilateral investment treaties. Dr. Prager has been a member of ITA's Executive Board since 2006, was ITA's first Chair of the Americas Initiative (2005-2008) and serves as Special Rapporteur for ICSID for the online arbitration site kluwerarbitration.com. He is the author of several articles on international courts and tribunals, international arbitration, international procedural law, as well as Latin-American integration.

JENNIFER PRICE — partner at King & Spalding LLP, Houston, Texas; JD, University of San Diego; more than 20 years of experience in all phases of international arbitration and litigation practice, representing primarily international energy and power companies in a wide range of commercial and investment disputes pursuant to virtually all major arbitral regimes in matters involving clients and disputes in North America, Europe, Africa, Asia, and Latin America. Member, ICDR Panel of International Arbitrators. Recognized among the World's Leading Experts in Commercial Arbitration; as one of the Best Lawyers in America in the field of International Arbitration and as one of the World's Leading Women in Business Law; and in The International Who's Who of Commercial Arbitration.

KLAUS REICHERT, S.C. is a barrister in practice at Brick Court Chambers in London and at the Bar of Ireland. He has served as arbitrator and counsel in over one hundred international cases in many jurisdictions pursuant to rules including LCIA, ICC, ICDR, UNCITRAL, LCIA-DIFC and ICSID. He is a member of the LPD Council of the International Bar Association, the Executive Boards of the ITA and Arbitration Ireland and the ICC Irish National Committee. He was counsel for Dallah in the landmark case on the New York Convention before the English Courts. He was the chair of the Host Committee for ICCA 2008 in Dublin and in 2012 lectured on international arbitration at The Hague Academy of International Law, Seminar for Advanced Studies.

JONATHAN SUTCLIFFE is a partner in the Dubai office of Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P. He has significant experience in international arbitration and has acted for numerous clients on a diverse range of international commercial arbitration, ADR and litigation matters in the energy, construction, defense, insurance, international joint venture and film sectors and on investor-state disputes. Jonathan also sits as an arbitrator. Jonathan is qualified in England & Wales and in New York and is registered as an advocate in the DIFC Courts in Dubai. He is recommended for international arbitration and projects and energy disputes by various leading legal guides, including Chambers, Legal 500 and The International Who's Who of Commercial Arbitration. Jonathan is a Member of the Advisory Board of the Institute for Transnational Arbitration.

JENNIFER THORNTON is Special Counsel in the International Arbitration and Dispute Resolution Group at Baker Botts L.L.P. where she specializes in the resolution of complex public international law claims arising under international investment agreements. She is also an Adjunct Professor of Law at George Mason University Law School where she teaches International Investment Law. From 2006 until 2010, she was an Attorney-Adviser on the NAFTA/CAFTA-DR Arbitration team at the United States Department of State. In this capacity, she defended the United States against numerous NAFTA Chapter Eleven investment claims and monitored questions of treaty interpretation in several of the first investment claims arising under Chapter Ten of the CAFTA-DR. She also advised the interagency group charged with reviewing the U.S. Model BIT on questions of public international law and procedure. Prior to joining the State Department, she practiced law in New York and represented clients in arbitrations governed by the ICSID, ICC, and SCC Arbitration Rules.

SCRIPTWRITERS

LUCY GREENWOOD is a qualified solicitor in England and Wales, an accredited Foreign Legal Consultant in Texas and a member of the Fulbright & Jaworski International Arbitration Group. She is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and is a member of the Executive Committee of the North American Branch of the Chartered Institute. She is also a member of the Young & International Global Advisory Board of the International Centre for Dispute Resolution. She has served as counsel in cases under the LCIA, UNCITRAL, ICC, LMAA, and ICDR Arbitration Rules seated in England, France, Switzerland, United States, Italy and Russia and involving international law and the laws of Switzerland, France, England, Texas, Chile, India, Hungary, Trinidad and Venezuela. She has particular experience with oil and gas disputes and questions of interpretation and construction under English law. She graduated in Law from Cambridge University and has practiced law in England, France and the United States.

JULIA J. PECK is an associate with Hoguet Newman Regal & Kenney, LLP in New York. Her practice specializes in complex commercial and business litigation, government investigations and regulatory work, and international arbitration. She received her law degree from Yale Law School and her undergraduate degree from the University of California, Los Angeles. She is a co-author of the International Arbitration chapter for the forthcoming American Society of International Law's judicial bench book on international law.

THOMAS VOISIN is an associate in Shearman & Sterling's International Arbitration group. He has advised on numerous arbitrations with particular focus on investment, energy and general commercial disputes. He is a member of the Paris Bar. He studied law at Panthéon-Assas University (Paris II) and at Oxford University.