25TH ANNIVERSARY PARTY
celebrating the
25TH ANNUAL ITA WORKSHOP

Following the Welcome Reception at the hotel, please join us for a special 25th Anniversary Party celebrating the Workshop's 25th birthday at Sambuca 360, a nightclub in a lively entertainment district. Sambuca is very near The Center for American and International Law, so we'll likely do a drive-by along the way.

Tickets for the party are $85, including dinner (heavy hors d'oeuvres), drinks, transportation and birthday cake. To purchase, visit cailaw.org/ITA or indicate on the registration form that you wish to attend.

Buses will depart from the hotel lobby at 6:45 for the party and will return to the hotel at the end of the evening.

8:30	WELCOME REMARKS R. Doak Bishop, ITA Chair King & Spalding LLP, Houston
8:40	ITA: THE FIRST TWENTY-FIVE YEARS Ewell E. "Pat" Murphy, Houston
9:00	THE THEORY AND REALITY OF THE ARBITRATOR: WHAT IS AN INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATOR? This session will explore the roles and responsibilities of an international arbitrator. To whom does the arbitrator owe duties: only the parties, or also to society? What analogies best capture the nature of these duties and the status of an arbitrator: parties' employee, private judge or independent service provider? To what extent do different roles attach to arbitrators in commercial cases, as contrasted to investor-state disputes? MODERATOR: William W. "Rusty" Park, Professor of Law, Boston University School of Law, Boston PANELISTS: Teresa Cheng, Senior Counsel, Des Voeux Chambers, Hong Kong Brigitte Stern, Emeritus Professor of International Law, University Paris I, Pantheon Sorbonne, Paris
9:50	ARBITRATOR TRANSPARENCY: LISTS, COMMENTS AND RATINGS - A DEBATE In this session, Judge Brower and Professor Rogers will discuss the advantages and pitfalls of public lists, comments and arbitrator ratings. Can ratings and comments in peer-review publications assist in the selection of arbitrators? Should there be an online database of information about arbitrators, which provides information about issues such as the arbitrator's case-management skills, the arbitrator's approach with regard to jurisdiction, document discovery, the interpretation of contracts, the arbitrator's intellectual orientation or even the arbitrator's temperament? MODERATOR: Dietmar W. Prager, Workshop Co-Chair, Debevoise & Plimpton LLP, New York PANELISTS: Prof. Catherine Rogers, Professor of Law, Pennsylvania State University, Dickinson School of Law, University Park Hon. Charles N. Brower, 20 Essex Street Chambers, London, and Iran-United States Claims Tribunal, The Hague

2:00	INTRODUCTION TO THE AFTERNOON	Ann Ryan Robertson, Workshop Co-Chair Locke Lord LLP, Houston

2:05	THE ARBITRATOR AND CONSIDERATIONS OF PUBLIC POLICY International arbitrators increasingly face public policy issues but the exact parameters of the term “public policy” and its application remain undelineated. Is public policy what a State decrees as public policy? Is there an international public policy? This panel of preeminent international arbitrators will explore the scope of public policy and provide their views on when and how international arbitrators should apply public policy in international commercial arbitrations. MODERATOR: David D. Caron, Dean, The Dickson Poon School of Law, King’s College, London PANELISTS: George A. Bermann, Chief Reporter, All Restatement (Third) of the US Law of International Commercial Arbitration; Columbia University Law School, New York Anton Maurer, CMS Hasche Sigle, Stuttgart
2:45	ADVOCACY FROM THE ARBITRATOR’S PERSPECTIVE: WHAT IS HELPFUL AND WHAT IS NOT? There are many different techniques and styles of advocacy, but not all are as helpful or persuasive to arbitrators as counsel perhaps believe. This program will focus on the views and experiences of established arbitrators regarding the different approaches encountered and how those approaches are received. This session is of crucial relevance for all aspiring arbitration advocates. MODERATOR: Judith Gill, Q.C., Allen & Overy LLP, London PANELISTS: Donald Francis Donovan, Debevoise & Plimpton LLP, New York Jean Kalicki, Arnold & Porter LLP, Washington, D.C. Eduardo Zuleta, Gómez-Pinzón Zuleta, Bogotá
3:45	BREAK
4:05	ARBITRAL DECISION-MAKING: THE LEGAL THEORY AND THE PSYCHOLOGICAL REALITY Much attention has been devoted in arbitration circles recently to the need to improve the quality of arbitral decision-making including the effect of factors unrelated to the merits, such as cognitive biases and culture, that influence outcomes. Manuel Conthe, a distinguished Spanish arbitrator, economist and former chair of Spain’s Securities and Exchange Commission (CNMV), has been a leading spokesperson and author on the subject. In this session, Eduardo Zuleta, will interview Mr. Conthe in what should be a thought-provoking dialogue on the subject. Manuel Conthe, Bird & Bird (Spain) LLP, Madrid Eduardo Zuleta, Gómez-Pinzón Zuleta, Bogotá
4:35	GENERAL COUNSEL PANEL: WHAT ARBITRATORS SHOULD DO BETTER International arbitration has increasingly come under criticism for a variety of perceived ills. In this session, a panel of distinguished in-house counsel from across the globe will share their international arbitration experiences and frankly discuss what “arbitrators should do better.” This candid program promises to be of special interest to all involved in the field of international arbitration. MODERATOR: Alan R. Crain, Senior Vice President, Chief Legal and Governance Officer, Baker Hughes Incorporated, Houston PANELISTS: Peter Rees QC, Legal Director, Royal Dutch Shell plc, The Hague Laura M. Robertson, Managing Counsel – Arbitrations, ConocoPhillips, Houston Dr. Anke Sessler, Chief Counsel Litigation, Siemens AG, Munich

WALTZ ACROSS TEXAS TO COWTOWN

FRIDAY, JUNE 21, 2013

Institute for
TRANSNATIONAL ARBITRATION

They say Fort Worth "is where the West begins". Only 30 miles away from Dallas, "Cowtown" is deeply proud of its cowboy heritage and is also lots of fun.

- The Cowgirl Hall of Fame?
- The largest collection of western art in one museum?
- Dinner at the legendary Cattlemen's Steakhouse?
- Drinking, dancing and mechanical bull riding at the world's biggest honky tonk?

Don't miss this unique networking opportunity.

Cowtown tickets are $85 per person*

To purchase, visit cailaw.org/ita or indicate on the registration form that you wish to attend.

Price includes museum tickets, steak dinner, entry into Billy Bob's Texas Honky Tonk and transportation to and from hotel.*

Save the Date for the 9th ITA Americas Workshop!

JOIN THE INSTITUTE FOR TRANSNATIONAL ARBITRATION (ITA)

The Institute for Transnational Arbitration (ITA) provides advanced, continuing education for lawyers, judges and other professionals concerned with transnational arbitration of commercial and investment disputes.

MISSION

Founded in 1986 as a division of The Center for American and International Law (CAIL), ITA's mission is to promote global adherence to the world's principal arbitration treaties and to educate business executives, government officials and lawyers about arbitration as a means of resolving transnational business disputes.

WHY BECOME A MEMBER?

ITA membership offers many outstanding benefits and is a solid investment in your career. Depending on the level of membership, ITA members may designate multiple representatives on the Institute's Advisory Board, each of whom is invited to attend, without charge, either the annual ITA Workshop in Dallas or the annual Americas Workshop held in a different Latin American city each year.

Your membership dues and participation support the activities of one of the world's leading forums on international arbitration today!

THE ADVISORY BOARD

The work of the Institute is done primarily through the Advisory Board and its committees. The ITA Advisory Board and committees meet for business and social activities each June in connection with the annual ITA Workshop. Other activities occur in connection with the annual ITA Americas Workshop and throughout the year.

PROGRAMS

The primary public program of the Institute is the annual one-day ITA Workshop, presented each June in Dallas, which customarily combines mock scenes with expert commentaries performed and presented by leading arbitrators and arbitration practitioners from around the world to illuminate procedures and issues commonly encountered in international commercial arbitration. For a complete calendar of ITA programs, visit cailaw.org/ita.

PUBLICATIONS

ITA publishes its acclaimed Scoreboard of Adherence to Transnational Arbitration Treaties, a comprehensive, regularly-updated report on the status of every country's adherence to the primary international arbitration treaties, in its quarterly journal/newsletter, News and Notes. All ITA members also receive a free subscription to World Arbitration and Mediation Review, a law journal edited by ITA's Board of Editors and published in four issues per year.

ITA's educational DVDs and books are produced through its Academic Council to aid professors, students and practitioners of international arbitration. Since 2002, ITA has co-sponsored KluwerArbitration.com, the most comprehensive, up-to-date portal for online international arbitration resources, in which current developments around the world are reported monthly by ITA's Board of Reporters.

For more information, visit cailaw.org/ita.
