

Angélica María Perdomo is a Colombian lawyer who focuses her professional practice on international arbitration. She is currently part of Zuleta Beyond Borders, from where she works as a secretary or assistant to the tribunal in international commercial and investment arbitration cases. She previously worked as a senior institutional counsel at the international arbitration section of the Bogotá Chamber of Commerce and as an associate lawyer at the litigation and arbitration department of Garrigues Colombia. She has also worked as an assistant professor of Public International Law at Universidad del Rosario. Angélica is a lawyer from Universidad del Rosario and holds a postgraduate diploma in International Business Law from Universidad de los Andes.