

Elina Mereminskaya

Elina Mereminskaya studied law at the Immanuel Kant Baltic Federal University (formerly known as State University of Kaliningrad, Russia). She later received an LLM degree from the Georg-August University of Göttingen, Germany and the Ph.D. degree from the same University.

Since 2003 she has been a lecturer at the Law School of the University of Chile, on the undergraduate and postgraduate levels, teaching conflict of laws and international arbitration. Elina worked at the Secretariat of the Arbitration and Mediation Center of the Santiago Chamber of Commerce (CAM Santiago) and at the Chilean law firm Bofill Mir & Alvarez Jana. In March 2017, Elina joined Wagemann y Cia – Lawyers and Engineers, a Chilean boutique firm specialized in Construction Law.

Since 2012, Elina is the Co-Managing Editor of the ITA Arbitration Report. Elina Mereminskaya has authored numerous publications on international arbitration, including her book “Arbitraje Comercial Internacional en Chile: Desafíos y Desarrollo” (Thomson Reuters, 2014).