

PROFILE FOR BOB M. MUSENGA

Bob M. Musenga is a legal practitioner with nineteen years experience having been called to the Zambian Bar in 1996. A graduate of the University of Zambia Law School (1995) and University of Aberdeen (Masters in International Commercial Law-2007) Bob has extensive experience in corporate work having worked for the Tanzania Zambia Railway Authority (as Senior Legal Counsel), Zambia Daily Mail Limited as Company Secretary/Legal Counsel, Public Service Pensions Fund (Senior Legal Officer) and Pensions and Insurance Authority as Director Corporate Services/Board Secretary between 2009 and 2014 and Deputy Registrar-Pensions from April 2014 to date). The Pensions and Insurance Authority is a regulatory and supervisory authority for the pensions and insurance industry in Zambia

Bob is a part time undergraduate Law Lecturer and research supervisor for both postgraduate and undergraduate students in insurance, pensions and corporate governance at the University of Lusaka in Zambia.

Bob is a Club President of a local Lions Club under District 413 of the Lions Club International and further is a Melvin Jones Fellow and has undertaken several projects aimed at addressing humanitarian challenges under the auspices of Lions Club International.

Bob attended the 2004 edition of the Academy of American and International Law and is a proud recipient of an honorary Citizenship of the City of Dallas(2004)