

Eliana Baraldi is a graduate in Law of the University of Sao Paulo (1995), a Masters candidate in International Private Law at the same university and member of the 47th Academy of American and International Law of The Center for American and International Law - CAILAW (2010). She is the Head of Arbitration and Mediation Practices at the Brazilian law firm De Vivo, Whitaker e Castro, based in São Paulo, with more than 20 years of experience. Her practice focuses on high-stakes court litigation and complex commercial arbitration as arbitrator and party representative, both domestic and international, ad hoc and institutional under the rules of ICC, UNCITRAL, LCIA, CAM-CCBC, CIESP and others. Her experience includes public concession agreements and private complex international transactions, mainly in major infrastructure projects, engineering, energy, oil & gas, telecommunications, mining, M&A and joint ventures, banking, trade finance, maritime law, distribution, underwriting and insurance, among others.

Before joining De Vivo, Whitaker e Castro, Eliana Baraldi acted as counsel for one of the most respected law firms in Brazil, where she dealt with complex cross border transactions mainly related to international aircraft finance and banking law.

Eliana is a Regional Coordinator at the Brazilian Arbitration Committee - CBAr, member of the Arbitration Committee of the International Bar Association - IBA, member of the Brazilian ICC Arbitration and Mediation Committee, member of the Advisory Board of the Institute for Transnational Arbitration - ITA, member of Asociacion Latinoamericana de Arbitraje - ALARB, member of the Arbitral Appointments Committee of the Scottish Arbitration Centre and member of International Association of Defense Counsel – IADC and a former member of the Arbitration Commission of the Brazilian Bar Association. She is a frequent international speaker and author of several international articles related to arbitration. She was also recognized by Chambers Latin America in Dispute Resolution as a notable practitioner in 2015.