

Moisés Flores Gómez.

mflores@basham.com.mx

(52)(442)103 21 00

Moisés Flores is Mexico's Coordinator (Central and Bajío region) for The Center for American and International Law. He is also member of the Advisory Board of the Southwestern Institute for International and Comparative Law, and fellow alumni of the Academy class of 2015. Moisés is member of Basham, Ringe y Correa, S.C. since 2007; his practice has been developed generally in the areas of Corporate, Mergers and Acquisitions, Cross-Border Transactions, Contracts and Foreign Investment. He is also member of the United States-Mexico Bar Association ("USMBA"), and has published articles in several magazines, among others, in Negocios PROMEXICO Magazine, Evolución Empresarial Coparmex, as well as in the USMBA's Newsletter. Moisés graduated from the Law School of the University of the State of Queretaro, México; and has taken graduated studies of Tax Law and Corporate Law in the Postgraduate Division of the same University. Currently, he is taking the Masters of Administration in the Postgraduate Division of reference. Additionally, he took a diploma course in Mexico City's Escuela Libre de Derecho, as well as a certification program in the Center for American and International Law in Dallas, Texas.