GENERAL INFORMATION

CANCELLATION POLICY: Written notice must be received 5 business days prior to the program (Email: lgaspar@cailaw.org). After this date, no refunds, but substitution of attendees for this program will be permitted with prior approval. Call 972.244.3415. Registrants not entitled to a refund will receive the course materials.

NONDISCRIMINATION POLICY: The Center for American and International Law (CAIL) does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, sexual orientation, color, religion, national origin or ancestry, age, disability, veteran status or any other protected status.

* Tuition will be used to cover future expenses of CAIL's Criminal Law grant programs or to provide for items that the grant cannot sufficiently cover.

† Voluntary contributions go to support The Center for American and International Law and will go directly to CAIL's private fund account.

This course is funded by a grant from
The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals.

Most materials will be provided on a CD or electronically instead of in a folder.

REGISTRATION

10th Annual Criminal Defense Trial Skills And Trial Law Program A Program For The Defense

August 5-8, 2013

at The Center for American and International Law | Plano, Texas

Attendance is limited to 60 Texas Criminal Defense Attorneys.

Dress code is Courtroom Attire (suits) each day. This program is suggested for lawyers with five or more years of experience. You are encouraged to register early. Registrants who have attended this program two or more times in the past will be placed on a wait list. We will move attorneys from the wait list into open spaces two weeks prior to the program. Tuition includes classes, lunch and materials.

Please note: this program has interactive small group break-out sessions. During these sessions, participants are expected to individually conduct voir dire, give an opening, direct and cross examine a witness, and give a closing.
