

Biography

Sunitha Cheruvu

President
Frisco Education Foundation

Sunitha Cheruvu is President of the Frisco Education Foundation and a business consultant with Southwest Airlines. She is a consummate leader who enables practical innovation and enterprise process development with over 22 years of IT including planning for and implementation of complex business solutions ensuring in a timely delivery of desired functionality within defined budget. Sunitha is an excellent communicator at all levels of the organization including technology and business teams with a focus on building partnerships and getting results.