

SCHOOL OF POLICE SUPERVISION

What's a supervisor? What's a leader? What's the difference?

*"Great training, excellent experience, wonderful instructors."
Sgt., Juneau, AK, Police Dept.*

*"... First tier class, best course I have ever attended."
Sgt., Washington Metropolitan Police Dept.*

Course Overview: This course is designed for first-line supervisors and middle-level management. It should be of interest to law enforcement agencies concerned with the professionalism of their management team. This is the only independent four-week school in the nation for police supervisors and recognizes the importance of supervision as a major management function in law enforcement. The curriculum focuses on the transition from "street policing" to management, especially the social and personal adjustments.

Topics:

- Building Teams
- Community Policing: Practical Approaches for Servant Leadership
- Conflict and Conflict Resolution
- Creating a Strong Ethical Environment
- FLSA
- Fundamentals of Employee-Relations
- Law Enforcement and Family Violence
- Leadership: Principles from the U.S. Army
- Leadership Styles and Communication
- Legal Issues: Liability, Supervisory Negligence and Case Law
- Managing the Police Culture
- Media Relations
- Motivation and Counseling
- Professional Writing
- Role Identification
- R.O.P.E.S. Course
- Servant Leadership
- Sexual Harassment
- Statistics for Law Enforcement Supervisors
- Stress Management
- Supervising Difficult People
- Your Future in Supervision

Who Should Attend: This program is well suited for experienced, newly-promoted or aspiring first-line supervisors, especially those seeking supervisory excellence in a law enforcement environment.

Faculty*: Faculty who teach are invited from the law enforcement and academic communities. The Institute is committed to assembling some of the best faculty to challenge and encourage participants to think "out of the box."
