Ethics Train-the-Trainer

Hosted by: Texas DPS

Ethics and Character: Issues that Go to the Heart of Policing

Since 1994, this highly interactive four day course has provided trainers and educators with materials, insights, and confidence to teach ethics to law enforcement audiences. Graduates of the course have come from law enforcement organizations across the United States, Canada, Great Britain, South America, and the Middle East.

Successful completion of this program has authorized graduates to present the eight hour Law Enforcement Ethics and the sixteen hour Ethics for Field Training Officers courses within their own agencies or local/regional academies.

Topics

- Models for Ethical Decision Making
- Identifying Dilemmas and “Stakeholders”
- The Six Pillars of Character and The Principles of Ethical Policing
- The Condition of Society: What does it mean to policing?
- Higher Standards/Different Standards
- Strategies for Creating a Healthy Ethical Environment
- Understanding the Present through Foundational Ethics

Who Should Attend?

Trainers and law enforcement practitioners preparing to teach or lead ethics discussions in their agencies or academies. (Note: This program is best suited for individuals with prior training experience.)
