

2ND ANNUAL WINTER ROUNDTABLE

THE DEBATES

January 24, 2013
The Biltmore Hotel
Miami, Florida

SPONSOR REPRESENTATIVES

Olivier P. André is Special Counsel and Director of Dispute Resolution Services at the International Institute for Conflict Prevention & Resolution (CPR). CPR is the only non-profit membership organization whose mission is to help global business and their lawyers resolve complex commercial disputes more cost effectively and efficiently. In addition to CPR's dispute resolution services, Olivier's responsibilities include Y-ADR (Young Attorneys in Alternative Dispute Resolution), CPR's European activities, and the Banking & Financial Services Committee. He is a member of CPR's Arbitration Committee and the Arbitration Committee of the New York City Bar Association. He gained experience in international arbitration at Shearman & Sterling L.L.P. and at the ICC Court of International Arbitration in Paris. He is admitted to practice law in New York and Massachusetts. Olivier is fluent in English and French and has a good knowledge of German Adrián Magallanes has been a member of the dispute resolution team of Von Wobeser y Sierra since 2002. Adrian has participated in many types of litigation proceedings and in ad hoc and institutional arbitrations, domestic and international, in the commercial, construction and investor-State areas. He has also been involved in technical expertise and conciliation procedures in the infrastructure sector, in transnational litigation with parallel proceedings in different jurisdictions, and in complex administrative and constitutional law litigation cases. In addition to his experience in Mexico, he worked on the dispute resolution practice groups of law firms based in Washington, D.C. (Arnold & Porter LLP) and Beijing (King & Wood Mallesons). Adrián is a graduate of the Escuela Libre de Derecho (summa cum laude) and has an LLM from New York University (NYU), in which he received the Arthur T. Vanderbilt Scholar award for academic merit. He also has post-graduate studies in arbitration from the Faculty of Law of McGill University, in Montreal. In addition to his law practice, Adrián is a professor in the arbitration graduate studies program of the Escuela Libre de Derecho, as well as executive board member of the International Center of Dispute Resolution - Y&I.

Victoria Shannon currently serves as Deputy Director of Arbitration and ADR in North America for the International Court of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC). In this capacity, Ms. Shannon advises government attorneys, in-house counsel and law firm attorneys on all phases of arbitration, mediation and ADR, including negotiating and drafting dispute resolution clauses, selecting neutrals and enforcing awards. She also assists the U.S. Council for International Business (USCIB), which serves as the U.S. National Committee to the ICC, in nominating arbitrators, mediators, and experts for ICC Cases. Ms. Shannon also serves as an Adjunct Professor at Fordham Law School where she co-teaches "Introduction to Investment Arbitration." Ms. Shannon frequently speaks at international arbitration conferences around the world on cutting-edge topics, such as class arbitration, consolidation, insolvency, the 2012 ICC Rules, enforcing arbitral awards, and managing document production effectively. Ms. Shannon's publications include Third Party Funding in International Arbitration (2012: Wolters Kluwer); "The 2012 ICC Rules of Arbitration" in Contemporary Issues in International Arbitration and Mediation: The Fordham Papers (2011), Arthur Rovine, ed. (2012: Martinus Nijhoff Publishers); and "The New ICC Rules of Arbitration" in New York Dispute Resolution Lawyer, Vol. 4, No. 3 (Fall 2011: New York State Bar Association Dispute Resolution Section). Ms. Shannon holds a bachelor's degree, cum laude, from Harvard University and a law degree from Harvard Law School. Ms. Shannon is a member of the bar in New York, New Jersey and the District of Columbia.

Jeff Sullivan specialises in international arbitration and public international law. He has been counsel in numerous bilateral investment treaty and Energy Charter Treaty arbitrations under ICSID and UNCITRAL arbitration rules as well in commercial arbitrations under all major rules. Jeff is the author numerous academic articles and chapters on international investment law and arbitration. Jeff is an Assistant Editor of World Arbitration and Mediation Review and a member of UNCTAD's Investment Expert Panel. He is qualified to practice in England, Washington D.C. and Florida.

Thomas W. Walsh, who currently serves as Chair of the ITA's Young Arbitrators' Initiative, is an associate in the New York office of Sullivan & Cromwell LLP. He focuses his practice on complex multijurisdictional litigation in U.S. federal and state courts, and international commercial and investor-state arbitration. Tom is a Deputy General Editor of Arbitration International and a member of the Arbitration Committee of the New York City Bar Association. Following his graduation from the University of California, Berkeley School of Law, he served as a law clerk to Judge Juan R. Torruella of the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit. Tom was a Fulbright Scholar in Ecuador from 2000 to 2001. He is a frequent author on international arbitration topics.

FACULTY

Roberto Aguirre Luzi is a partner in the international arbitration practice of King & Spalding's Houston office. Mr. Aguirre Luzi's practice focuses on international arbitration with an emphasis on international public law. The scope of his practice includes counseling multinational corporations on complex arbitration before the World Bank Group's International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) and UNCITRAL, as well as commercial arbitration under the AAA and ICC rules. He also has extensive experience in administrative law, government contracts, oil and gas contracts, public utilities, and power and infrastructure projects. Past experience includes the participation in various mergers and acquisitions and the formation of joint ventures in Latin America. Mr. Aguirre Luzi is included in Global Arbitration Review's 2011 "45 Under 45" as one of the leading figures of the international arbitration bar under the age of 45. Chambers Latin America ranks Roberto Aguirre Luzi individually, recognizing him for his "knowledgeable, highly proactive attitude," and notes that he is a "high-level bilingual lawyer." Mr. Aguirre Luzi has also been featured in Who's Who in International Arbitration. Mr. Aguirre Luzi co-chairs the American Branch of International Law Association's Committee on Bilateral Investment Treaties and Development. Mr. Aguirre Luzi worked for five years as an associate for Marval, O'Farrell & Mairal before joining King & Spalding in 2003. He was born in San Juan, Argentina, speaks Spanish and English, and reads French, Italian and Portuguese.

Dana MacGrath is Senior Counsel in the Litigation Department and the International Arbitration Group at Allen & Overy LLP. She is based in New York. Her international arbitration practice focuses on complex commercial disputes as well as judicial recognition and enforcement proceedings. She also serves as arbitrator. Dana writes and speaks frequently on current issues in international arbitration and litigation. She is an Adjunct Associate Professor at Brooklyn Law School, where she teaches a seminar to students competing in the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot. Dana is Chair of the Y-ADR group of CPR.

Giorgio Francesco Mandelli is a senior associate in the International Arbitration Group and the Latin America Arbitration Group of Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer US LLP, resident in the New York office. Giorgio's experience includes commercial and investor-State disputes, and he has acted as counsel in matters before ICSID, ICC, LCIA, UNCITRAL and ad hoc tribunals in the areas of oil and gas, mining, telecommunications and insurance. Giorgio is a graduate of Princeton University, the University of Oxford and New York University School of Law (LL.M., International Legal Studies). He is an English solicitor, a New York-qualified attorney, and has obtained the 'Higher Courts (Civil Advocacy) Qualification' in England and Wales. Giorgio speaks English, Italian and French, and is conversational in Spanish.

Bonard Molina García is Principal at Windrose LLP. His dispute resolution practice focuses on advising Latin American law firms on the handling of investor-State and commercial arbitrations on matters ranging from procedural strategy to brief-writing to oral advocacy and hearing preparation. Before founding Windrose, Bonard was a member of the international arbitration practice at Arnold & Porter LLP. Bonard studied law at Georgetown University Law Center, has a graduate degree in philosophy from the Catholic University of America, and did his undergraduate work in biology at Loyola University Maryland.

John V.H. Pierce is a partner in the International Arbitration Group of Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP and is the head of the arbitration practice in the New York office. He has a diverse practice focused on the resolution of international disputes, often with complex, multi-jurisdictional elements. He represents clients in international arbitrations conducted in venues throughout the world and has experience arbitrating under the rules of all major international arbitral institutions. Mr. Pierce has been recognized in Chambers USA America's Leading Lawyers for Business as "an outstanding advocate" and a "crucial figure in the firm's global arbitration practice." In addition to his work as counsel in international arbitration matters, Mr. Pierce acts as an arbitrator in international disputes and is a frequent lecturer and writer on issues related to international arbitration and litigation. Mr. Pierce is a graduate of the Georgetown University School of Foreign Service (magna cum laude), the Institut d'Études Politiques de Paris, and the Georgetown University Law Center. He was a law clerk for the Honorable Margaret M. McKeown on the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit and he is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations.

Francisco Rodriguez is a shareholder in the Litigation Practice Group and focuses his practice on cross-border disputes and international arbitration and litigation. Francisco has represented parties in matters involving complex civil and common law issues before international arbitration panels and U.S. courts. His experience includes the representation of U.S. and Latin American multinationals in international arbitrations in both English and Spanish. He is a graduate of the Georgetown University Law Center, where he obtained his J.D.

Ank Santens is a partner in White & Case's international arbitration group, based in New York. Ms. Santens has served as counsel and arbitrator in commercial, investment, construction and sports arbitrations under all major arbitral rules and in numerous jurisdictions around the world. She has experience in multiple industry sectors, in particular infrastructure/construction, energy, insurance, mining and telecommunications. A Belgian national, Ms. Santens is civil and common law educated and her working languages, besides English, are French, Spanish and Flemish/Dutch. She is Chair of the CPR Arbitration Committee and serves on the Executive Committee of the Foundation for International Arbitration Advocacy (FIAA). She is one of GAR's 45 Under 45 (2011).

Jeff Sullivan specialises in international arbitration and public international law. He has been counsel in numerous bilateral investment treaty and Energy Charter Treaty arbitrations under ICSID and UNCITRAL arbitration rules as well in commercial arbitrations under all major rules. Jeff is the author of numerous academic articles and chapters on international investment law and arbitration. Jeff is an Assistant Editor of World Arbitration and Mediation Review and a member of UNCTAD's Investment Expert Panel. He is qualified to practice in England, Washington D.C. and Florida.

Thomas W. Walsh, who currently serves as Chair of the ITA's Young Arbitrators' Initiative, is an associate in the New York office of Sullivan & Cromwell LLP. He focuses his practice on complex multijurisdictional litigation in U.S. federal and state courts, and international commercial and investor-state arbitration. Tom is a Deputy General Editor of Arbitration International and a member of the Arbitration Committee of the New York City Bar Association. Following his graduation from the University of California, Berkeley School of Law, he served as a law clerk to Judge Juan R. Torruella of the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit. Tom was a Fulbright Scholar in Ecuador from 2000 to 2001. He is a frequent author on international arbitration topics.