

Cecilia O'Neill de la Fuente
Madrid, Spain

Cecilia O'Neill de la Fuente has a Law degree by Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú (PUCP), a Master of Laws (LLM) by University of Pennsylvania and a doctor's degree by PUCP. Cecilia is an associate professor of Commercial Law at Universidad Carlos III de Madrid and former Dean of the Law School at Universidad del Pacífico, in Perú.

Cecilia is arbitrator in proceedings administered by the Arbitration Center of the Lima Chamber of Commerce, Arbitration Center of the American Chamber of Commerce in Lima and the Arbitration Center of the Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú.

Cecilia is Delegate before the Commission on Arbitration and Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) of the International Chamber of Commerce. She is a member of the International Court of Arbitration of the American Chamber of Commerce of Perú – AMCHAM.

Cecilia is a member of the Peruvian Steering Committee of the Spanish Arbitration Club (Club Español de Arbitraje - CEA), a member of the Peruvian National Committee of the International Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Institute of World Business Law of the International Chamber of Commerce.