

Dr. Frank is an international commercial lawyer working in the field of electricity transmission and nuclear energy. He works for NKT cables group as Group Senior Legal Counsel. Before this he served on corporate boards, was principal counsel for 2 nuclear new build projects and advised on the International Thermonuclear Experimental Reactor. He holds three law degrees: a dr. jur. from ELTE University in Budapest, an LL.M. from Suffolk Law School in Boston and a DU from the University of Montpellier. He lectures regularly at universities and for the industry on nuclear contracting.