

Dr. Andreas Lohbeck

Country Coordinator for Germany

Andreas is a counsel for international mergers and acquisitions at CMS Hasche Sigle from Stuttgart, Germany. He is specialized in advising on complex domestic and cross-border mergers and acquisitions as well as joint venture projects, with a strong emphasis on transactions including financial investors. He particularly has a broad range of experience in advising transactions relating to the U.S. and in the technology, automotive and machinery sector. Andreas also frequently supports complex corporate structuring and restructuring projects as well as post-merger integrations.

Andreas attended the Academy class of 2015 and has been serving as Secretary General of the Alumni Association. He is also a member of the Executive Committee and of the Advisory Board of the Southwestern Institute for International and Comparative Law.

A graduate of the University of Tuebingen, Germany, Andreas served his legal clerkship at the Regional High Court of Berlin, including a stage at a major law firm in Los Angeles, USA. He completed the exam as a registered court interpreter for English and German in California, USA. Prior to joining CMS in 2012, he worked for a U.S.-law firm at their Berlin offices.

Andreas is looking forward to getting in contact with you.
