

GERARDO GUAJARDO

+52 (81) 4777-1000
gga@santoselizondo.com

Gerardo Guajardo is an associate of Santos – Elizondo in Monterrey, Mexico. Mr. Guajardo's practice focuses on corporate transactions and commercial litigation. During 2015 and 2016 he worked as a foreign associate in the Corporate and Latin America practice group of Paul Hasting LLP based in the firm's New York office.

Mr. Guajardo has significant experience advising domestic and foreign clients in relevant transactions including cross-border mergers and acquisitions, private and public offerings of debt and equity securities, corporate restructurings, secured debt financings and real estate transactions. He has represented clients on civil and commercial litigation.

Mr. Guajardo received his law degree from Tecnológico de Monterrey (ITESM) in 2012. While in law school, he participated in honors programs at Georgetown University and Cornell Law School. In 2015, he received an LL.M. (Master of Laws) degree from New York University School of Law. Mr. Guajardo is a fellow alumni of the Academy for American and International Law class of 2013.

Mr. Guajardo is admitted to practice law in Mexico. His native language is Spanish, and is fluent in English.