A properly crafted arbitration clause can keep businesses out of foreign courts, can ensure that expert decision-makers will be entrusted with any disputes that arise, and can produce results that are globally enforceable.

Week 4, cont.

FRIDAY
JUNE 22

9:00 AM - 4:15 PM - INTERNATIONAL TAX

The profits from transactions involving international trade and investment are almost always subject to potential income taxation by at least two countries. While everyone does not have the time and inclination to become a tax specialist, all lawyers involved in the negotiation, structuring or implementation of international transactions should be aware of the principal considerations that affect the taxation of those transactions.

This course provides an introduction to the methods used by the United States and other governments to tax the income of international transactions (trade, investment and labor), consider the economic and political implications of different approaches to international taxation, and explore some of the techniques that have been developed to mitigate tax burdens on income derived from such transactions.

— Charles H. Gustafson, Professor of Law, Georgetown University Law Center

Week 5

9:00 AM – 12:00 PM - INTERNATIONAL COMPLIANCE

A discussion about the importance of compliance issues in international transactions with a focus on what is ethics and what is compliance. We will also discuss the U.S. Sentencing Guidelines and elements of an effective Compliance Program.

— Dana Nahlen, Legal Executive, FIS Corporation

1:15 – 4:15 PM - LEGAL ETHICS

This course explores the different roles played by lawyers—advisor, negotiator, mediator, and advocate. Particular attention is given to the U.S. adversarial legal system and differences between that system and the legal traditions of other countries. The class considers duties to clients, the courts, the government, adverse parties, and opposing lawyers. Participants are asked to apply their own countries' ethical codes and values to real-life situations.

— Charles Doleac, Boynton, Waldron, Doleac, Woodman & Scott

TUESDAY
JUNE 26

9:00 AM - 12:00 PM - PRESENTATION OF LAW FIRM SOLUTIONS

Class members will present their solutions to the law firm problem to a panel of experienced international lawyers from the U.S.

1:15 - 4:15 PM - ELECTRONIC DISCOVERY AND CYBER SECURITY

The United States' discovery process is unique and lawyers from outside of the United States are often surprised at the breadth and extent of discovery in litigation and government investigations. Discovery can be very costly and disruptive to businesses, particularly those businesses with limited experience with United States' litigation and investigations. Discovery also raises potentially significant privacy and security concerns for global businesses. This session provides non-US attorneys with US discovery overview so that they may be better positioned to deal with US discovery issues.

— Mark Michels, Managing Director, Deloitte Financial Advisory Services LLP

WEDNESDAY
JUNE 27

9:00 AM - 4:30 PM - MOCK TRIAL – A CIVIL FRAUD CASE

With Texas Appellate Judge David Evans presiding and experienced Dallas lawyers representing the parties, Academy participants will take part in a mock civil trial. The proceedings will include jury selection, opening and closing statements, the examination and cross-examination of witnesses, and jury deliberations.

THURSDAY
JUNE 28

9:00 AM - 5:00 PM - INTERNATIONAL BANKRUPTCY WORKSHOP

Using a case study and facilitated small groups, this session will provide an overview of Bankruptcy Chapter 15 (a U.S. Statute covering international bankruptcies), jurisdiction and venue for Chapter 15 cases, and foreign main versus foreign non-main proceedings. The workshop is designed for the Academy and is facilitated by U.S. federal bankruptcy judges and lawyers.
