

THE INSTITUTE FOR LAW
ENFORCEMENT ADMINISTRATION

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

SCHOLAR-IN-RESIDENCE

Part-time Position

Scholar in Residence
School of Police Supervision
Institute for Law Enforcement Administration
Reports to Gregory Smith, Director and Vice President

Assignment Period

1 September 2020 thru 30 June 2021
Daily 7:30 AM - 4:30 PM during sessions School of Police Supervision (January, June, October)
Office Hours: 8 hours weekly during assignment period
Not eligible for benefits

Qualifications

PhD, EdD or JD in the field of Criminal Justice, Sociology, Psychology, Public Administration, Philosophy, Education, or Law is preferred. Applicants who possess Master of Education, Master of Arts in Teaching or equivalent degree and a minimum of 10 years of command level experience will be considered.

Info and Duties

Primarily responsible for overseeing the daily and strategic activities of the School of Police Supervision. The School of Police Supervision is one of the earliest forums developed specifically to focus a critical dialogue on leadership and supervision issues in policing in the United States. Since 1957, school staff regularly participates as facilitators with agencies throughout North America.

Specific duties include, but are not limited to:

- Maintain ILEA's premier status in the field of law enforcement leadership and ethics
- Develop new markets for ILEA supervision and Ethics programing
- Lecture on leadership and ethical decision making in law enforcement
- Publish ethics and law enforcement leadership related articles
- Assist in proctoring various ILEA programming
- General classroom management
- Teaching and grading in all ILEA programs as assigned
- Travel nationally and internationally as required
- Assist Director with other assigned educational leadership duties

Salary: $30,000.00

Resumes and letters of interest should be sent by May 1 to Director Gregory Smith at gsmith@cailaw.org.