Join us as we continue to educate the Next Generation of Law Enforcement Leaders.

“I am a proud graduate of ILEA’s 49th Management College. I wouldn’t be here had it not been for a solid foundation of learning provided by ILEA. I believe that 100%!

The importance of ILEA and the impacts it has on policing is needed now more than ever. As the discussions continue regarding police reform, Police leaders will need ILEA’s continued support to help build the new framework of policing, and how we approach the demands of the future.”

-- Jon “JT” Taylor, Chief of Police, Department of Public Safety Dallas Fort Worth International Airport about the Institute for Law Enforcement Administration (ILEA)

Established in 1957, the Institute for Law Enforcement Administration (ILEA), part of The Center for American and International Law (CAIL), provides courses, seminars and workshops for police and sheriff’s agencies both nationally and internationally.

ILEA’s mission is to improve the quality of justice by developing law enforcement leaders and practitioners through premier professional education and technical support. ILEA instructors and facilitators are among the best experts in their respective fields and in the nation.

EDUCATION. SCHOLARSHIP. VISION.

JUSTICE. INTEGRITY. RESPECTING DIVERSITY

The law enforcement environment of the 21st century is in constant change. At the Institute for Law Enforcement Administration, the staff is constantly preparing to find and instruct in best practices and to promote the use of technology that will maximize efficient and effective law enforcement administration in our nation and throughout the world. We continually strive to deliver timely, accurate and cutting edge education and technical support. The Institute for Law Enforcement Administration serves as a leader in policing education around the world.

Experience ILEA

We recognize the importance of supervision as a major policing function and are committed to preparing law enforcement officers for leadership in the complex world of public service.

In addition to leadership and ethics-based programs, ILEA also explores relevant issues facing the law enforcement community with cutting-edge programming.

FACE-TO-FACE AND WEBINAR

Need education exclusively for your department’s personnel?

ILEA is well equipped to bring any of our programs to your agency or custom design curriculum to meet your particular needs. Benefits of contracting select courses include saving on costly personnel travel expenses; eliminating travel time for your employees and ensuring that your department is “on the same page.”

CONTRACT COURSES

Hosting an ILEA conference or training session is a great way to bring current education to your agency at a reduced cost. Sessions may be held at your location or at our Plano facility upon request.

It’s easy! You provide the training site, necessary equipment and local marketing support. ILEA provides the faculty, curriculum and national marketing effort. When class enrollment reaches 25 participants, the host agency receives three seats free of charge.

Flagship Programs

SCHOOL OF EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP
An intensive 8-week course designed to prepare senior-level law enforcement managers for executive leadership in the complex world of public safety administration.

SCHOOL OF POLICE SUPERVISION
The only independent 4-week school in the nation for police supervisors.

SCHOOL OF EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP
In addition to covering a wide range of topics related to public and business administration, students also work in small teams on real world projects, some solicited from North Texas law enforcement agencies. All research projects culminate in a professional presentation and a written report of each team’s findings.

TCOLE Credit: Eligible for 240 hours of Texas Commission on Law Enforcement (TCOLE) credit.

SCHOOL OF POLICE SUPERVISION
This course recognizes the importance of supervision as a major management function in law enforcement and focuses on the transition from “street policing” to management, especially the social and personal adjustments.

This course is designed for first-line supervisors and middle-level management and should be of interest to all law enforcement agencies concerned with the professionalism of their management team.

TCOLE Credit: Eligible for 120 hours of Texas Commission on Law Enforcement (TCOLE) credit.

EMPLOYEE ENGAGEMENT: STRATEGIES FOR BUILDING MOTIVATED, RESILIENT AND INVESTED TEAMS

Employee engagement is extremely beneficial to any workplace. But what does it really mean for the law enforcement profession, where suicides occur in greater number than on-duty deaths? It means that managing for employee engagement is not only beneficial. It is essential.

This high-impact one-day workshop is aimed for law enforcement leaders interested in learning how to build a more resilient agency. It gives managers a framework and practical tools to engage, motivate and retain employees by addressing primary causes of job misery.

BEST PRACTICES IN LAW ENFORCEMENT INVESTIGATION

Designed with the help of law enforcement professionals, this program focuses on the causes of wrongful criminal convictions that can be impacted by law enforcement officers. This course is funded by a grant from the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals.

MANAGING THE TRAINING FUNCTION

This intensive four-day program will identify and enhance the skills necessary to succeed in the rapidly changing and challenging training environment.

SERVANT LEADERSHIP

Servant Leadership is a principle-centered approach to personal and organizational leadership. This program promotes discussion of the salient principles of Servant Leadership as applied in the law enforcement arena.

“The quality of the faculty, the adjunct instructors and the staff throughout ILEA is absolutely top notch. They have the same vision and they desire the same outcomes that every chief of police looks for in their staff.”

- Scott Brewer, Assistant Chief of Police, Prosper, TX
USING MS OFFICE, ACCESS AND EXCEL FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT
Using MS Office as a tool, this program will demonstrate the benefits of technology in crime analysis, investigations and community policing. Utilizing exercises similar to projects faced by crime analysts, participants will use MS Access and Excel in concert to analyze crime patterns, trends and problems.
