

AUTHORITATIVE RESOURCES FOR LEGAL RESEARCH

The Future of Investment Arbitration

Edited by ROGER P. ALFORD, Associate Professor of Law at Pepperdine Law School and CATHERINE A. ROGERS, Professor at Penn State Law School

This book contains contributions from leading experts on a wide range of topics of both theoretical importance and practical implication that will affect the future of investment arbitration. The highly innovative chapters combine to form a valuable discussion for all in the arbitration field. The contributors represent the full spectrum of perspectives and include leading arbitration experts from all over the world, ICSID insiders, US government officials, UNCTAD research personnel, seasoned investment arbitrators and counsel, and renowned legal scholars.

The Future of Investment Arbitration previews and guides future directions in the field and discusses the larger policy implications of specific rules. It includes cutting-edge analysis of empirical research regarding BITS that is essential to evaluating many assumptions about investment law and arbitration. Finally, the book takes a broad perspective, examining the rules discussed within the larger structural context of investment arbitration, and drawing investment arbitration into the wider setting of international law and corporate governance.

The Iran-U.S. Claims Tribunal at 25

The Cases Everyone Needs to Know for Investor-State & International Arbitration
Edited by CHRISTOPHER S. GIBSON, Associate Professor of Law, Suffolk University Law School, and CHRISTOPHER R. DRAHOZAL, JOHN M. ROUNDS Professor of Law at the University of Kansas School of Law

The Iran-United States Claims Tribunal, which has been called the most significant arbitral body in history, celebrated its 25th anniversary in 2006. The Tribunal's awards have been described as the most important body of international arbitration jurisprudence. The significance of these decisions as persuasive authority is second to none.

In this volume, experts in the field identify and comment on the Tribunal awards that are most important for international arbitration; i.e., the cases that everyone needs to know for investor-state and international commercial arbitration. The book approaches the Tribunal's work from a forward-looking perspective with emphasis on the continuing usefulness of awards and decisions issued by the Tribunal in international arbitration practice.

In addition to original contributions from an array of eminent authors (all of whom have extensive experience at the Tribunal and/or in investor-State and international arbitration), this book includes excerpts of key awards discussed in the contributions, as well as appendices with foundational documents for the Tribunal.
